COUNCIL SPEEDS EARLY DECISION ON CALLAN BID

Brothers Cite Annex Benefits

Daly City councilmen Monday night laid the groundwork for serious annexation negotiations with builders Mike and Tom Callan Jr. on the massive 871-acre "Callan Park," the biggest land transaction in city history.

City Manager Edward Frank and the council, in the absence of ailing City Attorney Paul Hupf, heard the Callans' initial ideas on the benefits the builders claim the giant tract would bring to Daly City and its tax structure.

The council resolved to confer with Hupf this week on the legal aspects of the annexation and to decide if an annexation agreement, as such, instead of following the subdivision ordinance would be the best method to pursue. Public hearing on the annexation request is March 21.

While the council appeared anxious for an immediate decision on the annexation, the matter of drafting an annexation agreement may be a key issue.

Councilman Bob St. Clair urged full speed on the talks with the Callans, suggesting also that not only "Callan Park" but "the just as large Christen dairy lands in this same area I feel, should come into Daly City." St. Clair said he had talked to Christen himself and "he seems interested in annexation."

St. Clair noted that Daly City's only "immediate expansion opportunity is to the south."

"The Crocker Estates," he added, "seem to be disinterested in Daly City at present and have thrown only peanuts in our direction." Ct. Clair was referring to long-standing Daly City attempts to annex portions of the easterly Crocker lands for residential and light industrial development.

Suggestion that no annexation agreement was necessary on the enormous Callan track

FRANK URGES A 'SIMPLER' CITY BUDGET

New City Manager Edward Frank declared, and the city council agreed, Monday night that the present fiscal budget, a voluminous 225-page document adopted last year, was a bit confusing and the next one should be much simpler.

Like the council, Frank said the current budget wasn't concise and was difficult to understand. He presented the council with a timetable for drafting the fiscal '60-'61 budget.

The city manager also proposes to institute "work sheets" to be filled out by departmental heads and supervisors on major projects. This practice, which he said was successful in Petaluma and "actually doesn't involve much work at all," will allow him and the council to evaluate time and monies spent on various projects. The council felt this would be an economical practice and approved Frank's idea.

Frank said he was still checking out Daly City's present budget problem, an expected general fund inbalance, with Finance Director Joseph Arch. The council's finance committee soon will recommend measures to balance the deficit.

Cement Truck Clobbers Home, But None Hurt

Residents on Daly City's Alexander avenue must feel "accident prone."

A runaway cement truck rolled backwards down the hill from 157 Alexander last Friday at 2:45 p.m. and toppled over after going through the garage of Robert E. Henry, 101 Alexander avenue, and also doing extensive damage to his home.

The truck was parked by Leland T. Francis, 28, of Half Moon Bay. The Bay Cities Building Materials truck rolled from 157 Alexander avenue backwards 27 paces, glancing off a rubbish container in the street and continued 50 paces where it struck the curb and veered sharply.

It went back across the street for another 20 paces, jumped the curb and went through Henry's house. It was half way in the garage on its right side, with the front end lying in the street. There were no injuries. Officer Richard deLosa cited Francis for improper hill parking.

Police officer Jim Welsh recalled that during the war years a P-51 airplane crashed into a house across the street, two houses from Henry's residence. Only the pilot was killed in the mishap. Welsh said a major catastrophe was barely averted this time as the cement truck could very well have gone through a nearby school yard.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Trustees View Columbus Plans; Silent On 'Callan Park' Letter

Jefferson Elementary District trustees last Thursday approved preliminary plans for the Christopher Columbus K-6 site. The east of Skyline boulevard school will cost an estimated $900,000 and should be operational next year.

The board also read a letter from the South San Francisco Unified School District pertaining to the possible "Callan Park" annexation by Daly City.

In summary it stated, "It is urged, therefore, that in addition to thorough study of the educational problems involved in the proposed annexation of this new section to Daly City, consideration be given to the possibility that it could be redistricted into the Jefferson Elementary and Jefferson Union High School District which serve Daly City."

Superintendent Richard Foster, of the Daly City district, said there could possibly be 5400 homes in the Callan tract. Along with the Christen lands, if these were annexed, the elementary district would need 17 elementary schools, without considering junior high schools. He asked that the letter be filed and no action taken, since it was originally directed to the Daly City council and the school board received a copy. The DC council has not yet discussed the letter from the South SF School District.

Last week trustes also approved an audio visual contract for 1960-61 with the district and county sharing the $2953.51 total.

The agreement allows the district to loan films and other materials. At the same meeting the board approved expenditures of $78,708.50 for stocking schools with audio visual aids. The materials will be bought as funds become available during the next three years. Largest item to be purchased is 226 room darkening curtains at an estimated cost of $50,850. Trustees Katharine Mullen and Wayne Douglas volunteered as members of the sabbatical leave committee. The other three members are Dr. Vinton Stratton, superintendent of instruction; Hesther Blaylock, Colma K-6 teacher; and Mae Varni, Woodrow Wilson teacher.

Council's Regular Meeting March 14

The city council of Daly City will meet in regular session next Monday night, March 14, starting at 8 o'clock at 75 Wellington avenue, second floor. The council met Monday night this week for a special budget session, and will hold a study meeting this Thursday evening at City Hall.

7741 Elementary Students Here; District To Enlarge 2 Schools

Jefferson Elementary School District student population has risen 14 per cent in 1960 over the figures for the 1958-59 school year.

Superintendent Richard Foster Thursday night said there are 7741 children enrolled in the district, 1100 more than last year. The district has grown by 602 students since the first day of enrollment, September 14, 1959.

Benjamin Franklin School has the largest number, 1093, and has added 192 students since the start of the year.

In line with the increased growth, trustees authorized the addition of three classrooms at both Colma Intermediate School and Benjamin Franklin. Angus McSweeney was employed as architect at a fee of 8 per cent. Foster stated he sent a letter to the builder of the Abraham Lincoln School, noting the six classrooms at the site were a "must" for April 10 completion.

Other enrollment by schools, as of February 26:

Vista Mar (including some Thomas Edison and Abraham Lincoln youngsters), 1481 students; Crocker-Pershing, 735; Woodrow Wilson, 690; Garden Vilalge, 689; Colma K-6, 647; Colma Intermediate, 607; Westlake, 527; Jefferson, 514; Vista Grande-Thornton, 407; Olympia, 346, and home instruction, 5.

COPS, FIREMEN AID CHOKING INFANT HERE

Officer Al Nicolini and Sergeant Jerry Galindo responded to a call from Mrs. Gloria Thompson, 20, 38 Frankfort street, who said her daughter Ramona, 1 year, was choking and couldn't get her breath.

Firemen arrived at the same time, 2:17 a.m. Friday, with breathing apparatus and administered oxygen until the M&D Ambulance arrived to transport the baby to Community Hospital.

FOUNDATION work is moving rapidly on new General Pershing elementary school, located between Hanover and Risel streets. The old school, in the background, will be torn down once the replacement is complete this summer.

THESE Lowell street homes, north of Whittier, are boarded up and will be removed to make room for the George Washington elementary school, bulk of which will occupy the forest-like Meussdorfer property (corner of which is at top left of photo). About 15 homeowners agreed to sell to make room for the school site. Washington should be ready for its first students early next year.

JEFF HIGH IMPROVEMENTS WOULD COST APPROXIMATELY $1 MILLION

To rebuild the main building and two shops at Jefferson High School the cost would be $826,857. For completely new buildings the total would be $841,095.

This is the decision Jefferson Union High School District trustees must make within eight weeks. Superintendent Ed Morgan said, "Whether the school is renovated or new buildings are authorized, Jefferson has to be master-planned for 1500 students."

He added, "Whether the buildings are built new or are renovated, work will still have to be done on the metal and wood shops and gymnasium."

Architect Mario Ciampi made an hour and a half presentation to the board on the proposed renovation plans, adding that the same costs had been placed in writing as to the new construction figures. Ciampi said, "What we actually have here is a bid on the renovated work, and not an estimate." He was referring to the $826,857 cost.

The award winning architect continued, "I have never done anything like this before in my life. In fact, I don't think the State Board of Education has ever seen complete renovation plans along with figures for a new school at the same site."

Morgan then declared: "I believe the state will be pleased

7000 Still Unregistered For Primary

There are still over 7000 unregistered voters in the Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma areas for the June primary election, according to estimates made today by local deputy registrars.

Twenty-six new county precincts in Daly City, and two more in Broadmoor and Sterling Park could add more than 7000 voters to the rolls.

Total county registration to date is 177,246, compared to 197,828 in November of 1958. In the 25th Assembly District (the northern half of the county) there are only 86,127 registered compared to 94,489 two years ago.

The First Supervisorial District has 53,699 eligible voters, and Daly City has 16,271 compared to 14,505 for the municipal election in April of 1958.

Voters dropped from the rolls in December 1959 were those who did not vote in either major election in 1958. Those who have moved since 1958 are still registered in their old precincts unless they have since re-registered and have been cancelled out in the former area.

Registration booths have been open for a month at the Westlake Food Center and the Safeway store off Junipero Serra boulevard and Washington street, and will continue to be open on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays until registration for the June primary closes on April 14. In addition, registrars will be at Mayfair and Spotlite markets after March 15 on a similar schedule. Boy Scout units will assist in handing out slips informing people of the registration sites

ELDERLY WOMAN INJURED BY BACKING TRUCK

A 74-year-old woman stepped off the curb to see if a bus was coming and was struck by a truck that was backing up last Friday at 10:35 a.m. at Mission street and Templeton avenue.

Gertrude Jones, 74, of 458 Templeton avenue, was driven to Junipero Serra Hospital by Police Inspector George Brooks and Captain Roy Beecher. She was treated for a laceration of the right leg.

Anthony E. Simao, 21, of 302 27th street, San Francisco, was cited for backing the Belfast Beverages truck without due caution by Officer Richard deLosa. DeLosa said the truck was parked in a red zone at the end of a corner.

New Construction $2.5 Million Here

Assessed valuation from building permits issued during the month of February in Daly City went up almost a million dollars from the previous month's figures.

A total of 211 permits on new construction valued at $2,527,835 in February was a great increase over the 54 permits and $1,618,576 valuation in January.

The February breakdown was: 160 permits for new dwellings at $2,449,051; 47 dwelling alterations at $72,742; 1 commercial alteration at $1660; 1 neon sign at $582; and two houses repaired for fire damage at $3800.

ST. FRANCIS HEIGHTS

New Pauline Brown School Funds Granted

Jefferson Elementary School District will open bids April 1 for the construction of M. Pauline Brown K-6 school off Eastmoor avenue in St. Francis Heights.

Dr. David Shapiro, assistant superintendent, went to Sacramento Tuesday where the State Allocations Board granted the JESD $490,426 to build the school and an additional $30,124 to equip and furnish it.

The construction contract will cover 10 months. A February completion date is expected.

The JESD purchased the site from McKeon Company for $110,000, one of the lowest amounts the district has had to pay for a large site in recent years.

State Division of Schoolhouse Planning this week also approved plans for Christopher Columbus K-6 school. This site is just east of Skyline south of Westlake Unit 10. Shapiro said the district would request construction funds for Columbus at the April meeting of the Allocations Board.

Girl Claims Attack Here

A 14-year-old Jefferson High girl reported to Daly City police this week that she had been threatened and assaulted by three other unidentified teenage girls here February 27.

The alleged victim said she was walking along Mission street near Knowles avenue about 11:30 a.m. when the trio reportedly drew razor blades and tried to slash her face.

The Daly City girl told Officer David Johnstone that her assailants accused her of dating their boy friends and beating up one of their girl friends. But since she claimed she didn't know who the attackers were police couldn't follow through with an investigation.

The officers were notified by the girl's mother who had been advised by the Jefferson High dean of girls to report the incident to police.

TRUSTEES GET DOELGER OPTION FOR SCHOOL SITE IN UNIT 11

One hundred homes already have been sold in the Doelger Builders west-of-Skyline Westlake Unit 11 and these residents will move in by June. To Jefferson Elementary School District this means the necessity of a school to serve this area.

Trustees last Thursday instructed the administration to get an option on 19.5 acres of land at a cost of $4500 per acre. The option is for five years, and must be executed within three years by the district. The option action shows more of an intent to purchase than an actual purchase itself.

Estimated cost for the entire site is $446,880. The district attorney will examine the contract before it can be executed by the board.

Burton H. Marliave, consulting geologist for the site, said the school would be located within the San Andreas fault rift zones. There would be no danger as long as the school doesn't straddle fault lines and is not constructed of rigid materials, he noted by correspondence.

Foster stated the $4500 per acre cost is the lowest the school district has received.

The board may, in the future, give up the Gaspar Portola site, which Doelger had set aside across from Unit 11 and east of Skyline. The Portola K-6 site was not deemed as feasible as the new school site in Westlake 11 because of the need for convenient school facilities west of Skyline.

JURY FINDS DC YOUTH GUILTY IN DOPE CASE

Steven "Mike" Distel, Daly City youth arrested October 1 for possession of narcotics, has been sentenced to six months in county jail and placed on three years probation.

A superior Court jury found Distel guilty as charged and Judge Murray Branson determined the penalty.

Daly City police and State Narcotics Bureau agents invaded Distel's home, 362 Peoria street, with a search warrant and found a marijuana cigarette in the suspect's shirt pocket.

Police Inspector George Brooks was instrumental in the investigation and spent three days in Redwood City testifying for the prosecution.

Gen. Pershing Students Have Own Postoffice

Mrs. Mildred Griswold's second grade class at General Pershing School recently went to the Westlake Post Office. The children wrote friendly letters to their parents and mailed them at the post office. Some children bought their stamps. Then they observed what is done to their letters before they arrive at their destination.

After the trip, the class wanted to have a post office of their own. Thanks to parents John Guillory, Robert Bendt, Albert Lee, George Makras, and Elijah Papke a post office was constructed on a Sunday afternoon. Some parents have already answered their letters. Everyday two children act as postmaster and clerk. There was a lot of mail to face and sort for Valentine's Day. Mrs. Emma Lockwood and Mrs. Una Stubb's second grade classes and Mrs. Jean Gustavson's third grade class are going to write letters and mail them at the "General Pershing Post Office."

MUSIC AND SPAGHETTI!

Crowd Estimated At 250 Attend Jeff High PTA's Annual Dinner

By Servart Ojakian

Jefferson High School PTA's traditional, yearly spaghetti dinner last Thursday night was a terrific success.

Object: To make money for the Student Welfare Fund.

Results: More than 250 parents, friends, students, attended and enjoyed the affair. The profits earned were rewarding.

Band teacher Richard Larsen's jazz group provided some snappy music throughout the evening. The boys deserve orchid bouquets for their kindness.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Norma Maita and Mrs. Vivian Wingate, along with PTA president, Mrs. Dora Kusber, and the whole executive board, worked hand-in-hand in making the dinner a success.

Mrs. Ann Eason, in charge of the bazaar table, sold many handmade articles, adding to the profits earned.

The Jefferson PTA thanks the many wholesale houses and business firms who donated all the food for the dinner.

This week's PTA meeting will follow the international theme which has been prevalent this past month in the Winter Olympics. Six foreign students will give a panel discussion of their views of America.

The meeting will be March 10 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

with the way Ciampi has prepared his report. There are concrete facts and accompanying figures. However, other problems such as educational aspects are involved. There will be a period of upheaval, and the administration will have to decide what to do with the excess students whether the school is rebuilt or renovated."

The state will receive Ciampi's report and will go over the plans and justify either figures for building or renovating. The department of education will check to see that the plant is educationally feasible while the department of finance will look into the figures within bounds.

If renovation is deemed the best way, Ciampi said, "Architecturally we would try to retain the same general physical character of the building."

Some of the changes, if renovation were approved: The auditorium would be converted into a library; typing rooms would be on the level floor rather than second story; all tile roofing would be replaced with asbestos shingles; the band playing and practice rooms would be in Unit 3.

Ciampi said for purposes of drawing plans the whole building was "gutted" and the architects started from there. The reason was that the district knows exactly what educational and fire safety "musts" are, but the non-teaching areas are up to the architect's discretion as to availability, space, etc.

In any case, the Jefferson project will be a million dollar job.

$4547 Raised In Heart Fund Campaign Here

"Thanks to the generosity of Westlake, Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma families, more than $4547 has been contributed to the Heart Fund from the Heart Sunday drive on February 28," Mrs. Don M. Davis, Heart Sunday chairman of San Mateo county, said today.

The total figure will be larger, according to Mrs. Davis, because contribution envelopes left at families' homes (who where away on Heart Sunday) are still being received at Heart Fund headquarters. "If you haven't sent in your contribution, please do it now, and help in this personal drive to beat the nation's number one killer," she urged.

Final tallying of contributions has been possible through the volunteer assistance of tellers at Bank of America, under the direction of Edward King. The local fire departments also acted as collection depots, with Chief Elmer Kennedy of Daly City and Chief George Bertucci of Colma in charge. Police Chief Ray Savage of Broadmoor also assisted, with Mrs. Vincent Murphy of Broadmoor as cashier. Mrs. Richard Liberty and other public-spirited women also "pitched in" to count donations at the firehouses.

William A. Burkett, Heart Fund campaign chairman advised that the Heart Sunday county collections were in excess of $63,000, exclusive of the "Heart-Days-for-Business" program, which is still in progress in some communities.

Burkett thanked the thousands of volunteer workers and families for their assistance on Heart Sunday. "Through this invaluable support, your Heart Association can continue to move ahead in research, professional and public education, and community service."

Girl Scout 'Week' Display At Bakery

A very interesting Girl Scout window display has been set up in Relish Bakery to help tell the Girl Scout story in the Daly City area.

The week of March 6-12 is National Girl Scout week and March 12 is the 48th anniversary of its founding.

Mrs. Joyce Frasu, a Girl Scout leader who has much artistic talent, should be complemented for her arrangement.

Dolls dressed in Girl Scout uniforms of different nations constitutes the main theme. Troop 124, under the leadership of Mrs. Barbara Senkir, dressed the dolls as a project. There are 34 different nations who have Girl Scouts units.

Callan Park

was challenged by Councilman Joseph Verducci. He stressed that the council should examine its prior agreements on the Doelger and McKeown annexations.

"Scrutinize these agreements," Verducci urged, "then we will be able to determine how much the city has benefitted from these written commitments."

Both Councilmen Francis Pacelli and St. Clair replied however that certain annexation pacts with other builders had not been fully fulfilled.

Attorney Frank Rose, representing the Callans, answered that the Callans "were willing to agree to just as much as the other builders," but he declared that annexation agreements "in my opinion have no legal value and aren't used in most other cities.

Both Verducci and acting City Engineer Bill Chapman explained that maps on "Callan Park" as submitted to the council lacked definition on streets, water and sewage specifications. Rose replied that the Callans were preparing these maps and should have them detailed sufficiently to provide the council with an overall picture.

The city manager suggested that the planning commission and the South San Francisco and Daly City school districts be forwarded maps on the tract and kept up-to-date on the annexation discussions.

Mike Callan, aided by attorney Rose and engineer Ted Tronoff, briefly described the scope of the 871-acre development. He said it would include three shopping centers, buffered by apartments. The largest shopping center would cover 60 acres fronting on Junipero Serra across from Buri Buri in South San Francisco.

"This 60 acre center," Callan went on," would be larger than both Stonestown and Hillsdale, equidistant between them both, and would provide some 240,000 residents (South SF, San Bruno, Daly City and Pacifica) with outstanding stores and merchandise."

Rose, describing the two other proposed commercial centers as fronting on Skyline and 12 acres apiece, said Callan Park with its more than adequate shopping facilities would broaden Daly City's tax base, bringing the city heavy revenue in business licenses and sales tax funds. He said municipal costs, on the other hand, to service this area, would be at a minimum, according to Callan's intended agreement with Daly City.

Answering a council query about the school district's concern (South SF school district is opposed to DC annexation because Callan Park lies within the South SF district), Rose said the annexation wouldn't affect the Daly City school district. He added that it wasn't unusual for a city to have some of its residents in another school district.

Rose admitted that sewer problems would be a major problem, but he said water service needs "shouldn't have any effect on the annexation approval."

Verducci again disagreed with Rose on this latter point. "Water service is Daly City's prime source of revenue, our life blood. New sewer facilities also must be clearly specified in your proposals," Verducci stated.

Tronoff and St. Clair then explained that the county is working on its flood control districting, a project that would help to lessen the Colma creek drainage woes that long have concerned SSF and the greater DC area. While City Engineer Chapman noted that sewage, reservoir and water pump locations would be difficult problems because of the steep Callan Park terrain, St. Clair said the sanitation district is aware of expansion needs in the Westlake 11 and the south of St. Francis Heights areas.

Mike Callan conceded that his firm needs schools, water and sewage facilities in the overall development—major considerations in negotiations with Daly City.

He scoffed at stories published elsewhere that Callan's only interest in annexing to Daly City was because his firm would be able to build homes on smaller lots, thus more homes. South SF officials have declared that Callan isn't interested in SSF because that city requires 50-foot lots, while Daly City allows 33-footers.

SCHOOL FIELD STORM SEWER WORK OKAYED

No voices from the audience spoke out against the county's storm sewer easement at Garden Village playfield at last Thursday's Jefferson Elementary School District meeting, so trustees passed a resolution giving approval.

Approval was conditional, that the county install the pipe for flood control purposes, do all repair work, and restore the field to its original condition after completion of work.

The board also approved a change order calling for installation of chain link fencing, at a cost of $5900, at Vista Mar School, and accepted the notice of completion on soils erosion control work at this site.

Trustees passed a resolution requesting cancellation of city and county taxes on the Meussdorffer property, (center of Washington K-6 site), a routine matter when the school district has acquired land.

Members also hired teachers; Mrs. Mary C. Chalios and Mrs. Foula Lamp, both having A.B. degrees and credentials from San Francisco State. They will report in September. Mrs. Lamp taught here earlier.

Charles D. Ahern, who received his B.S. from Kent State University, Ohio, was hired as an administrative assistant for business. He holds a masters' degree from New York University. Ahern's salary will be $10,412 next school year.

Trustees also approved the school calendar for the 1960-61 school year, which was drawn up in conjunction with the high school district schedule. The calendar calls for 178 teaching days, three more than required by the state education code.

TWO VANDALS WRECK AUTO -- PARENTS PAY

Two 15-year-old Daly City boys completely demolished a 1951 model auto between 1 and 3 p.m. last Friday.

David E. Haley, 26, 320 Palomar drive, said he parked his sedan near the Westlake Park construction area for two hours. When he returned he found the auto damaged beyond repair.

All of the car's windows were broken, two large holes were hammered into the trunk lid, all panel glass was broken, holes were cut in the canvas top, the battery was smashed, and other parts of the motor were scattered on the ground.

He found three boys near the car, ranging from 13 to 15 years old, and held them in custody. Officer John Coleman said their parents verified their stories that they had left the house approximately 10 minutes before to go to the store.

Coleman returned to the scene and found four boys in the area. Two 15-year-olds admitted the vandalism. The parents of the boys said they would pay for the damage to Haley's auto.

HUNDREDS OF DELEGATES

Daly City Teens Saturday Host Northern Cal Youth Conference

The Hi-Fi Teen Club and its sponsor, the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, will host the annual Northern California Youth Council's first planning conference this Saturday at War Memorial Communty Center.

The N.C.Y.C. first began in the city of San Jose in 1944 and was created as a means for better adult understanding of youth. It has now branched out into a well organized youth association. Adult members of N.C.Y.C. act in an advisory capacity only.

Representatives of youth groups from the northern tip of California to as far south as Fresno will be in attendance here for the full day's program.

Guest speaker at this conference will be Don Behm, Dean of Boys at Jefferson High School. Local dignitaries who will be involved in the opening ceremonies are: Mayor Edward Dennis, Dee R. Van Nest, director of parks and recreation, Louis J. Larcombe, chairman of DC's parks and recreation commission; and a representative of the Daly City Ministerial Association.

Two planning conferences are held each year in preparation for the three-day conference at Asilomar. At the first planning conference the youth will be attending discussion groups to present their ideas on the theme, discussion topics, speakers, consultants, entertainment, etc., for the Asilomar Conference. At the second planning conference, these ideas will be considered and finalized.

Delegates from the Hi-Fi Teen Club will be Dolores Spinetti, Nanci Reginelli (both will act as recorders for discussion groups), Maryann Laramie, Kathy Liebhart, Bobbie Giannini, July Orr, Jean Borba, Irwin Wong, Ernie Montoya, Bill Sarris, Mike Rovai and Craig Garcia.

Spinetti, Reginelli, Laramie, Montoya, Rovai and Garcia were Teen Club delegates at last year's Asilomar Conference.

DC Woman's Husband Aboard Sub On 2744-Mile Cruise In Arctic

After a 45-day scientific ice exploration cruise into the Arctic Basin, James D. Henderson, electronics technician second class, son of Mrs. Lenora M. Ocheltree of 1510 N. Osage, Independence, Missouri, and husband of the former Miss Madeline F. Stanislao of 1159 Brunswick street, Daly City, returned to Pearl Harbor March 3, aboard the nuclear powered submarine USS Sargo.

During the 2,744 mile cruise under the Arctic ice pack, the Sargo reached the geographic North Pole.

Sargo's trip began January 18, when she departed Pearl Harbor and joined the icebreaker USS Staten Island in the Bering Sea. They parted company when the Sargo went under the ice pack for her 14-day, 21 hour trip to the Pole.

On her run under the ice the Sargo surfaced seven times. In most of the surfacings the entire ship was able to break through. However, on her last two trips up, only her high sail could penetrate when she encountered minimum ice thicknesses as great as three feet.

By reaching the geographic North Pole February 9, the Sargo became the first vessel in history to make the trip during the Arctic's coldest season.

The mission of her winter cruise, the gaining of oceanographic data, was also successful. During the Sargo's penetration of the Arctic Basin, scientists took numerous samplings of ice and water, stidied current flow, biological organisms, and learned more of the ocean floor structure.

On completing her second transit of the tricky and shallow waters of the Bering and Chukchi Seas, February 24, Sargo gained smooth sailing waters for the return voyage to Hawaii.

In making this historic cruise the Sargo aided in the continuing exploration of the Arctic Basin which was begun in 1958 by the Nautilus and continued last year by the Skate. The three submarines have collected oceangraphic data in an effort to learn more about sea and ice conditions in the relatively unknown area.

Board Picks Oceana High Principal

Dr. Charles Tonini, 44, assistant principal the past six years at Paramount High School near Los Angeles, has been hired by Jefferson Union High School District trustees as principal for Oceana High School in Sharp Park.

A Navy lieutenant commander during World War II and the Korean War, Dr. Tonini is married and has two children. He received his A.B. from University of California and earned his masters and doctorate degrees at USC. He has spent 14 years in teaching, seven of them in an administrative capacity.

TERRA NOVA HIGH SCHOOL BID DATE SET

Bidding for the construction of Terra Nova High School in Pacifica will begin on March 24, according to Architect Mark Falk of the firm of Falk and Booth.

Falk told Jeferson High School District trustees that final plans should be approved next week. Bids will be opened on Thursday, April 21, at 8 p.m. The board will take final action on April 25.

Housewife Collapses During Breakfast, Dies At Hospital

Myrtle Humbert, 69, 6002 Mission street, was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital Friday at 9:35 a.m.

Peter Humbert, her husband, said she was having breakfast when she fell off the chair. She picked herself up and seemed to be okay, he noted. He went into the kitchen and returned in approximately 10 minutes. He found his wife unconscious on the sofa.

He then called for an ambulance. She was transported to the hospital by M&D Ambulance.

Westlaker Heads South SF Agency For Prudential

Kent N. Kofford, 181 Park Plaza drive, has been appointed agent for the San Francisco South district agency of the Prudential Insurance Company, it was announced by Lou Lavine, manager.

A native of Denver, Colorado, he attended schools there and in Los Angeles. He is a graduate of George Pepperdine College. During World War II he served in the U.S. Coast Guard. Kofford is a member of the Elks.

He and his wife, Phyllis, have three children, Brooke, 5, Brian 4, and Bret, three months old.

Ciampi Earns National Medal For Westmoor

Medals of Honor for achievements in the building arts in the past five years were awarded February 25 at the opening of The Architectural League of New York's National Gold Medal Exhibition in the American Craftsmen's Council Museum of Contemporary Crafts, 29 West 53rd street, New York City.

In addition, a new League medal, the Collaborative Medal of Honor, was awarded to Mario J. Ciampi, architect, of San Francisco, his associate architect, Paul W. Reiter, and his collaborating structural and mechanical engineers, landscape architect, muralist, and sculptor in the design and construction of Westmoor High School in Daly City.

The Gold Medal of Honor for Engineering was awarded to Isadore Thompson, structural engineer, for the engineering of the Vista Mar Elementary School in Daly City, also designed by Ciampi. This circular plant is located in Westlake on Southgate avenue.

The Gold Medal of Honor for Design and Craftsmanship was awarded to Hervey Parke Clark and John F. Beuttler, architects, for the hand craftsmanship in building of the Christ Church, Episcopal, Portola Valley, California.

The National Gold Medal Exhibition, the league's first in two years, climaxes a series of six preliminary exhibitions held at the league this season in the following categories: Business, Industry and Government; Living; Health and Recreation; Religion; Education; and Trade and Transportation.

The juries selected the award-winning exhibits from among 206 invited and open submissions. The National Gold Medal Exhibition of 62 projects —in the form of models and giant-size drawings and photographs—will be on display at the Museum of Contemporary Crafts through May 15.

Following the New York showing, the exhibit will be circulated by the American Federation of Arts to galleries and museums throughout this country and Canada.

At the opening ceremony, Morris Ketchum Jr., League president and partner in the New York architectural firm of Ketchum and Sharp, said:

"For nearly eighty years The Architectural League has stood for the belief that architecture provides a framework for all the building arts, and that without these building arts no work of architecture is fully realized. The league's 61st national exhibition provides pictorial proof that the last five years of material prosperity in America has given our country's practitioners of the building arts the opportunity to create a new and brilliant renaissance in the art and science of building."

VET FIREMEN AWAIT ANNUAL INSTALLATION

Veteran Firemen's Association of Daly City will hold their annual dinner and installation of officers on March 26 at the Steak Pit.

The group has grown from a small contingent in 1926 to more than 150 members. Outgoing president Battalion Fire Chief Wayne Alexander will turn the gavel over to Captain Frank Tardelli.

Others to be installed are vice president Peter Bordson, second vice president Captain Richard May, chaplain Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, secretary Battalion Fire Chief Mel Hanson, and treasurer Larry Shaw.

3 Jeff High Bandsmen Win Medals

Three Jefferson High School band performers were the recipients of honor medals at the third annual band clinic, held in Campbell, near San Jose, March 4, 5 and 6.

Representing the local district were Richard Bradford and Mike Grimes, trumpet, and Ed Printemps, tuba. They were first selected by Jefferson band teacher Richard Larsen.

The boys were selected after try-outs were held at Campbell High's music building. The clinic was climaxed with a concert on Sunday afternoon, March 6, from 2:30 to 3:45 p.m. More than 500 persons attended the concert.

Representatives were from 55 schools throughout California at the California Band Directors Association - sponsored concert. There were so many talented musicians that two bands of 120 members each were formed. One gave a symphonic program while the other presented the main concert.

Bradford made his second appearance. He was chosen last year also.

MY-PET Market will open this September across the street from Jefferson High School at 6967 Mission street. On the scene for ground-breaking ceremonies last week were Mayor Edward Dennis, Councilmen Francis Pacelli and Bob St. Clair, real estater Primo Repetto, My-Pet Market Vice President Nello Piccinini, President Bill Ceragioli, J. A. Scatena of the Scatena York Company, and architect Ralph Berger. THE RECORD photo

City, Schools Joint-Use Pact Firmed

Jefferson Elementary School District will spend $18,914 next fiscal year (beginning this July) as its share of an agreement with the city of Daly City for staffing and the upkeep of joint-use playground facilities on a 12-month basis.

This was the report of Dee Van Nest, city parks and recreation director, to parks-recreation commissioners on March 1. The city and school district agreement covers the use of Crocker, Colma, Edison, Olympia, Westlake, Vista Mar, Woodrow Wilson and Vista Grande school playgrounds.

Edison, located in Westlake Unit 10 and newly opened for students, won't have its playground facilities ready for use until this September, Van Nest said he had been informed.

In other business last week, the commission tentatively approved the YWCA's proposed summer dancing classes at War Memorial building and possibly Westmoor High, heard Van Nest report on the California State Recreation Conference at San Jose (1600 delegates, Feb. 14-17), and discussed the Northern California Youth Conference which will be held at War Memorial building here on Saturday, March 12. More than 250 teenage club officers from throughout Northern California will participate in the Youth Conference, a day-long affair. City officials and representatives of the Daly City Ministerial Association will attend the opening ceremonies, Van Nest said.

Next commission meeting is Tuesday evening, March 29, 8 o'clock, at War Memorial building.

'Contact Lenses' Head The Agenda

Daly City's Personnel Board will meet this Thursday night, 8 o'clock, at City Hall, 75 Wellington avenue.

The agenda includes discussion of contact lenses for police officer candidates, a request for the adjustment of fire department salaries, and proposed duty statements for the police department, library and recreation staffs.

Police Inspector's Brother-In-Law Gets High Post

Carney J. Campion, 31, brother-in-law of Daly City police inspector George Brooks, last week was appointed director of the Redwood Empire Association, a public relation position that covers nine Northern California counties.

Campion, whose wife is the former Kathryn Brooks of Daly City, had been secretary to the California Redwood Lumber Association with offices in Santa Rosa. His new headquarters will be in Marin.

Campion is a University of California graduate and lived in Daly City four years.

DC STUDENT IN NATIONAL TEST FINALS

John Mahoney, Riordan High School senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mahoney of 255 Bellevue avenue, Daly City, has received notification that he has attained finalist rating in the National Merit Scholarship program, making him eligible for scholarship grants provided under this most important of the nationwide scholastic contests.

The original field of over 550,000 students taking the National Merit tests has now been narrowed down to approximately 10,000. All of these will receive certificates of merit under the program, and National Merit Scholars will be picked late in April from the ranks of the country's finanists.

Jefferson High Class of '40 Reunion Set

Bob Byrne, owner of a radio-TV sales and service store on Daly City's Mission street, is organizing a reunion for members of Jefferson High School's 1940 graduating class.

Byrne says he has located 39 classmates to date and hopes to notify many more.

Jeff '40 grads are asked to contact Byrne at PL 5-1900 for more information on the reunion event. It tentatively is planned for June.

Daly City Needs Volunteers For Police Reserve

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi announced today that the police department is seeking recruits for Daly City's Special Police Reserve.

This group of uniformed auxiliary officers has served the community and its citizens for many years, but recently the force has dwindled in strength (on 15 at present) because a few men have moved from the area, while others have resigned due to health or retirement.

New members will receive a basic training course prior to beginning active duty, including instruction in police and procedure, basic criminal law, self defense, first aid, civil defense and many other subjects. After training is completed they will be issued distinctive forest green and beige uniforms. Auxiliary officers must devote four hours every two weeks to active field training, and are assigned to work with a regular officer in a patrol car.

Members of the Special Police Reserve occasionally receive paid assignments at dances, athletic events and similar details in addition to participating in volunteer, unpaid work during traffic checks, disaster calls, special holiday coverage, and other duties requiring additional trained manpower. Reserve officers cannot carry sidearms, although all successful candidates are trained in the use of weapons, Petrocchi emphasized.

Rapid Transit Aide Guest Of Rotary

Richard J. Shephard, administrative assistant with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District, will be the guest speaker at today's Daly City Rotary Club meeting.

Program chairman Lee Brillhart said Shephard will discuss rapid transit projections. Frank Philipps is fine master for the program. It begins at noon at Westlake Bowl banquet room. Nominations for new club officers will be made during the meeting, according to Parkes Harris, unit president.

THREE of four Colma town council candidates responded to the cameraman's invitation last week. Center is incumbent Wallace Honeywell, appointed following the death of John Newton two years ago. Honeywell is flanked by candidates Fred Garbini (left) and Leslie Balestra. Incumbent Earl Taylor also is in the race for three openings.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

"It was like going to the moon and only being able to bring back a piece of cheese."

This was JESD trustee Tom Noonan's sizeup of the American Association of School Administrators' 92nd annual conclave last month in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Noonan and Dr. Dave Shapiro attended the five-day meeting which attracted 21,000 first cabin school authorities.

Tom felt there was so much to learn from the experience and too little time to accomplish this objective.

Whenever you get the absolute experts in education at one shindig, the lessons to be gained are infinite.

We could be off key, but will Daly City's April 12 election "feature" the city treasurer race instead of the council balloting?

So far the three-man council skirmishing has been mild. Some believe the fur will fly for the treasurer's post. This would be unique because most city treasurer contests seldom involve intense politiking.

●

John Putkey, a respectable lawyer and Holy Angels parishioner, has been rumor-milled as a possible candidate for 25th District Assembly. We hear gentleman John is quite popular with the local Demos.

Councilman Bob St. Clair seems to have the inside track as the Demos' runner against Lou Francis. St. Clair, for obvious reasons, is more of a "name" throughout the county, although Putkey is highly regarded by those who know him.

It would take a big name candidate to give Francis a close challenge. This race could be one of the best in the June primary.

●

The cemetery town's total population is about 400. A candidate with 50 or 60 votes usually emerges triumphant.

●

Three of the four council candidates we've sounded out admit there wouldn't be much campaigning in Colma. Win, lose or draw, it's still a neighborly little town. Good losers are still friends, et cetera.

●

Because churches of all faiths were unable to participate, the proposal to have clergymen recite prayers prior to Daly City council meetings has fizzled out.

The council felt it would be unfair if all the religions here were not represented in the ceremonies.

●

Rotary Club District Governor Jim Hamilton, a recent guest of the Daly City congregation, was explaining to his son how basketball was played "in the good old days."

Ed Morgan, Rotary publicist, later learned that Sunny Jim was resting comfortably at Sequoia Hospital.

Seems Dad slipped while lecturing Lad on the finer pivots of the game. A broken leg wiser, the elder Hamilton henceforth will confine his lectures to Rotary listeners.

●

Byron Van Alstyne, who got his learning at USC, recently left the ranks of the single fellers.

Losberger says he is getting beyond the "young" bridegroom stage. He has graduated to the "rich widow" eligibility ranks.

●

Statistics are staggering:

We were jolted by a recent national survey which shows that narcotics addicts in this country number 50,000.

A quote from a recent letter to Jefferson High School District trustees:

"Recently I had occasion to visit Westmor High School. In my work I visit many schools and I have yet to find one where the staff operation is so efficient, where the faculty morale and visible enthusiasm for education is higher. The natural politeness of pupils encountered, the serious attention to work in all of the classes I visited can only mean the finest kind of leadership, the highest quality of faculty personnel devoted to their work."

It was signed by John R. Devine, coordinator of student teaching at University of San Francisco.

Daly City's 49th birthday as a municipality will be on the calendar this Friday, March 11. Your reporter can't afford to forget the date since his Pop, a brewer by heritage, will be marking his 51st birthday.

Any relationship between the two milestones is purely intentional. Dad, you see, never gets his name in print. He prefers obscurity. And he still smiles all the way to the bank.

Spotlite Market Employee Felled By Heart Attack

Ralph N. Davidson, 47, 57 Alvarado street, San Francisco, was brought to Junipero Serra Hospital via M&D Ambulance last Thursday at 10:30 a.m. after suffering a heart attack while stacking produce at the Spotlite Market, 1 Hillside boulevard.

Davidson was committed to the hospital by the attending physician. Officer John Van Otten responded to the store upon the call of owner George Glass.

Elementary School Board Decisions

Jefferson High School District trustees at Monday's special meeting hired Mrs. Joanne Reynolds to take the place of Mrs. Barbara Epidendio, adult school director Lou Martin's secretary, on March 31.

Mrs. Mildred Hansen was also hired. She is a cafeteria helper.

The board also approved the 1960-61 audio visual contract with the San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools. The contract calls for an expenditure of $1,299.18.

FUN GALORE AT THESE TOP SPOTS

SAN FRANCISCO STATE SCHEDULES SECOND SERIES OF ART MOVIES

The second program of the spring series of art movies will be presented on Wednesday, March 23, from 12 to 1 p.m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Main Theater at San Francisco State College.

Admission is free. The program is presented by the Creative Arts Division and the student's Art Club in conjunction with the Associated Students. The following films will be shown:

THE SWORD AND THE FLUTE, by James Ivory, is an enchating color film on rare Indian miniature paintings. The legendary and romantic themes of the Moghul and Rajput schools unfold in a unique filmic experience. A lucid and sensitive narration and a score of authentic Indian raga music accompany the charming film.

THE TENDER GAME, by John Hubley, is a witty exercise in free association of popular music and popular images to the tune of "Tenderly," sung by Ella Fitzgerald and played by the Oscar Peterson Trio. A Venice Festival prize-winner.

GHESS FEVER, the first film by the great Russian director, V. I. Pudovkin, is an extraordinary silent comedy which parodies the grotesque events at an international chess tournament in a cinematic style related to the early German expressionist films.

A NIGHT AT THE PEKING OPERA, produced and directed by two young French film makers, presents a colorful spectacle of the Chinese theatre, resplendent with authentic, traditional music and costumes. A perceptive narration identifies the symbols of make-up, costumes, objects, and players.

ECHO OF AN ERA, depicts the early days of the Third Avenue "El" in New York, as seen in delightful engravings and photographs. This nostalgic film, shot in irreplaceable live footage in animation, was a resounding success with Europeans when it was shown at the Brussels World Fair in the American Pavilion.

RYTHMETIC is a most amusing animated film by the Canadian artists, Norman McLaren and Evelyn Lambart. A playful numerical free-for-all is punctuated by synthetic sound, producing a cinematic funfeast, recognized by many film festivals as an outstanding contribution.

Both the Department of Defense and the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization are in complete agreement that non-military defense is not and will not be the responsibility of the military, according to OCDM Director Leo A. Hoegh.

FEATURED at the Steak Pit each Saturday night are the local trio known as the "Tempos." They have been packing the place for many weeks, so don't miss a good time.

STIMULATES CHILDREN

'Reading Out Loud' Television Program Cites Value Of Books

By MONA BAKER

"Television discourages reading" is the accusation often leveled at the medium by critics. Meeting the challenging problem headon, Westinghouse Broadcasting Company has come up with a most stimulating and unique program series, "Reading Out Loud" (KPIX, Tues. 7:30 pm) designed to "generate family enthusiam for good books throughout the United States." The program, produced in cooperation with the American Library Association, features world-renowned personalities, reading their favorite books to a group of children.

Special guest at KPIX's press conference to announce the new series was the noted actor-director-singer Cyril Ritchard, who was starring in "The Pleasure of his Company" at the Greary, and will be seen in next Tuesday's (March 15) program reading "Alice in Wonderland" over Channel 5. Featured in many starring Broadway roles, Mr. Ritchard is particularly familiar to youngsters for his delightful portrayal of leering Captain Hook opposite Mary Martin in "Peter Pan."

Winners of Nobel Prize, Pulitzer Prize, Oscar and Emmy Awards are among other guests who will appear on the series, and include such well-known personalities as Vice-President Richard Nixon, Senator John Kennedy, Eleanor Roosevelt, Dr. Frank Baxter, and many others.

Vitally concerned with television as a public service, Westinghouse Broadcasting Company is continuing its commendable policy of fostering educational programs throughout the country, well adhered to by their local outlet, KPIX, which has earned many awards for its excellent community efforts. Bay Area educators and libraries are cooperating with Channel Five in this worthwhile community project. Libraries will set up special displays of books featured on the programs, and will have lists available of coming programs. Both the National Education Association and National Congress of PTA's have given enthusiastic approval to the series as a real contribution to better listening and viewing for children.

We are glad to see Westinghouse Broadcasting Company concentrating their efforts in the field of children's programming where there is such an urgent need for more creative effort, and, considering the time spent in front of TV sets by the younger generation, a chance for this effort to bear real fruit in the years ahead.

The Post Office Department and Federal civil defense are cooperating in a project to equip the nation's 40,000 mail trucks for speedy conversion to ambulances.

VARIETY IN YWCA DANCE CLASSES HERE

The North San Mateo County YWCA announces a spring program of dance instruction designed to cover the interests of pre-teens, teenagers, and adults.

Teenage instruction in dance steps which include swing, mambo, and cha cha began Monday, March 7. This class will meet from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. for six weeks. Cost of the course is five dollars. A ballroom dancing course for the 18 to 80 age group met from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. the same evening. This is a six-week, six-dollar course. Couples and unescorted members are welcome. Both of these classes meet at the War Memorial Building in Daly City.

Two six-week courses of dance instruction for younger people began Tuesday, March 8, at the Westlake Clubhouse on Lake Merced boulevard. These courses emphasize acrobatics, tap, and ballet dances. The first course is a pre-school combination dance class for young people in the 4 to 7 year old age group. It will meet from 11 to 12. The second course is a pre-teen class for young people in the 7 to 12 year old bracket that meets from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. The fee for these courses is five dollars.

Membership in the YWCA is required for all courses. A junior membership is 75 cents for a year and the regular membership is two dollars. Additional information can be obtained by calling PL 6-7370 or by stopping at the North San Mateo County YWCA located at 375 South Mayfair, Daly City.

'Neighbor Night' Meetings Here Aid Symphony

One hundred and seventy-five parties are now registered at San Francisco Symphony Foundation headquarters with each day bringing the score up as additional plans are filed for the March 10 "Neighbor Night" — simultaneous gatherings to spread the news of the aims and advantages of membership in the foundation.

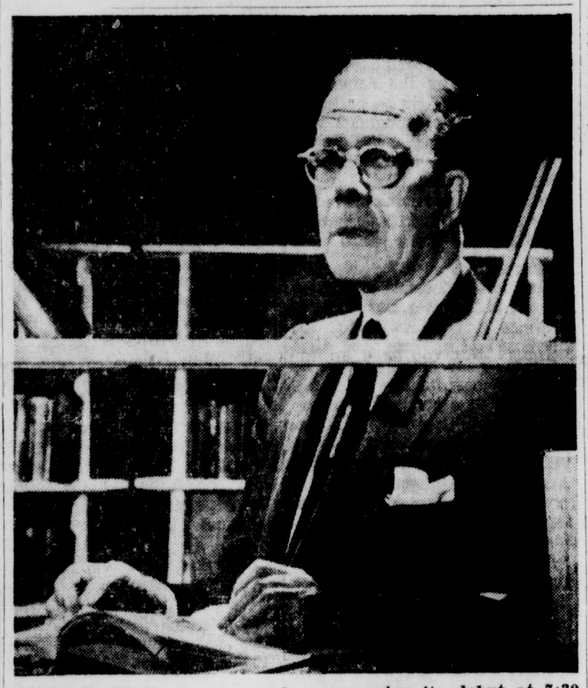
Some of the newly-signed-in parties from Daly City include: Mr. and Mrs. Lyal Ingersoll, 439 Crocker; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Friedenberg, 16 Highland; Mr. and Mrs. Maury L. Weinberg, 277 Wilshire; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stites, 34 Northgate avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Newlon J. Coffee, 1244 Southgate avenue.

New Instructor Joins Interior Decoration Class In South SF

Another expert has been added to teach interior decoration at South San Francisco Adult Evening School. Graham W. Miller, a member of the American Institute of Decorators, will conduct the course on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9.

The course, now in its second week, will run through May 25. Deadline for registration will be Wednesday, March 16.

Miller, prominent Bay Area decorator, was responsible for decorating the Matsonia, Mariposa, Monterey, and Lurline for Matson Navigation and spent seven years with W. & J. Sloan Company in San Francisco.



CYRIL Ritchard, renowned actor and director, will read "Alice in Wonderland" on March 15 when KPIX's "Reading Out Loud" educational program makes its debut at 7:30 p.m. Bay Area educators believe this new series is one of the best offered in the nation.

Food & Fun On The Peninsula And San Francisco

They're off and running at Bay Meadows. Thoroughbred racing returned to the Bay Area Friday and will continue now through May 16. Post time is 1:40 weekdays, 1:15 Saturdays.

Copperwood Lodge announced the opening of their new banquet room this week. The big private room in the back of the Lounge will accommodate 115 people, has its own cocktail bar, dancing and dining. It took a long time but it's a reality, finally. Local clubs and groups should check the facilities for their regular meetings if they are not presently situated, Copperwood is now also featuring regular dinners; Italian, American and Seafood.

A new special Steak Sandwich is featured at Rossino's Restaurant on Mission along with other fine homemade menu items. If the restaurant is closed, we understand you will still be able to stop in at the bar for the new special. It should be good.

Book Review Program Well Attended Here

Last Thursday Daly City's Friends of the Library and the Y.W.C.A. sponsored the second in a series of Thursday Morning Book Reviews. It was well attended by members of both organizations who came to hear Mrs. Pauline Coleman speak on her recent trip through South America.

After a few words by Mrs. Eleanor Raymond, North County Chairman of the YWCA, Mrs. Howard Stites, president of Friends of the Library, introduced the guest speaker.

Mrs. Coleman's tour was sponsored by the Women's City Club of San Francisco and in addition to covering the many well-known points of interest, it gave its members opportunity to meet and discuss current problems with various women's groups of our Latin American neighbors. Mrs. Coleman brought several books with her and particularly recommended "People and Politics of Latin America" by Williams, as good background reading for anyone contemplating a South American tour.

Varig Airlines donated as their contribution to the success of this Book Review Series, two pieces of smart-looking luggage and a bok on Brazil. These were used as door prizes.

Speaker for the April Review will be Miss Marion Turner, author of several books on child psychology.

DC Leatherneck Completes Training

Marine Pvt. Larry P. Lapadura Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence P. Lapadura of 807 Brunswick street, Daly City, is scheduled to finish four weeks of individual combat training this week at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, California.

Trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

Presidio DAR Unit To Mark 25th Birthday

At its monthly meeting to be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday, March 21, at Veterans War Memorial building, Presidio Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will observe its 25th anniversary with a tea..

During the past 25 years, Presidio Chapter has made many worthwhile contributions such as: observance of patriotic occasions, awarding scholarships to worthy students, helping to maintain schools in places where no other educational facilities are available, placing landmarks at places of historic interest, and keeping informed on ways and means that women can play a part in keeping America safe and strong. In this connection, Presidio Chapter members feel fortunate at its 25th anniversary observance to have as guest speaker Lt. Col. Helen R. Bouffier, U.S. Women's Army Corps (ret.), who will speak on "The Function of the WAC in War and Peace."

Colonel Bouffier is most qualified to discuss this subject since she served with distinction in World War II, being awarded the Italian War Cross; the Grecian Order of St. Constantine, rank of Dame, the oldest military decoration in the world; and served in Washington, D.C., where she won her masters degree in international relations from American University. In 1958 she was nominated by the Public Information Office, Camp Zama, Japan, as "U. S. Lady of the Month." Since retiring from active service with the WAC, this distinguished lady has resided in San Francisco with her husband, Daniel Gallivan. Today she is still busy as an executive of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Presidio Chapter' regent, Mrs. Herbert W. Hopkins, hopes for a full attendance of members.

Festival Booth Chairmen Told For Westlake 'Carousel Days'

Plans are progressing on schedule for the Carousel Days of Our Lady of Mercy Parish. This year, the festival will be held in the parish hall from April 28 through May 1.

At a recent meeting of the festival committee, Mrs. George Bigon and Raymond Forcina, the joint floor chairmen, announced completed plans for all festival booths and named booth chairmen for the four-day event:

Hat Booth, Mrs. John Muilwyk and Mrs. Patrick Schofield; Grocery Booth, Tony Formosa and Vince Baldocchi; Doll Booth, Mrs. Philip Fraher and Mrs. Frederick Waterhouse; Ham and Bacon, Frank Clifford and Dan Baldocchi; Linen Booth, Mrs. Charles Boerio and Mrs. Donald Coyne; General Merchandise, Jim Murray, George Baader and Charles Poetzl; Parcel Post Booth, Mrs. Milton Locke and Mrs. Charles Edelman; Record Booth, Jim Diggins; Garden Booth; Mrs. Frank Burns, Mrs. Donald Gordon, Buzz Davenport; Goldfish Booth, George Snell; Panda Booth, Mrs. Thomas Daly, Mrs. Byron Davenport and Mrs. Wilbert Souza; Lion's Den, Bob Hunter and Al Swadley; Grab Bag, Mrs. William Cardiel and Mrs. George Baader.

Assisting Forcina on the floor during the four days of the festival are Jim Sheehan, Jerry McCarthy, Bill Kenny, Rubin Fuhrman, Bob Foppiano and Ed Molkenbuhr. Working with Richard Dwyer, the general chairman, in completing festival plans is Frank Lawson, president of the Westlake Catholic Men. All chairmen are hard at work to provide attractive and valuable merchandise for their various booths.

Mrs. R. W. McHugh and Edward O'Donnell, the major investment co-chairmen, urge all parishioners to give prompt attention to the investment tickets and make returns as soon as possible. This can be done on Sundays after all the Masses. Persons submitting early returns to investment tickets will qualify for special incentive prize drawings.

A new booth has been added to this year's festival roster. Known as the "Hat Booth," it will appeal to both young and old, featuring hats and caps of many different shapes, types, and color. As an added feature of the booth, the winners' name will be embroidered free on the brim of the hat.

Plans are now being formulated for a dinner-dance, to be held on Saturday, April 23, at Westlake Auditorium. The Men's Floor Committee will sponsor this pre-festival event, with Dino Tonelli as chairman. The theme and decorations for this gala affair will be in keeping with the general theme of the festival. The evening will begin with a social hour at 7 p.m. A roast beef dinner, with all the trimmings, will be served promptly at 8:30 p.m. and music for dancing will continue until 1 a.m. Tickets are priced at $10 per couple and will be limited to 100 couples. Due to the limited number of reservations, the Men's Committee urges everyone to obtain their tickets early. For tickets or further information contact Raymond Forcina (PL 6-2251) or any member of the Men's Festival Floor Committee.

Father McKay St. Michael's Meet Speaker

"Vocations" will be discussed by the Rev. Father James P. McKay, Assistant Director of Catholic Cemeteries, when he talks to the members of St. Michael's School Mothers' Club on Monday night, March 14, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The election of the nominating committee to select the officers for next year will take place at this meeting. Five members to this committee will be elected and two will be chosen from the advisory board. Each member present will also write on a ballot here recommendations for president, vice president, recording secretary, financial secretary, and treasurer, and it is from these ballots the new officers will be chosen.

There will be no refreshments in observance of Lent, but coffee will be served by the hospitality chairmen, Mrs. Barbara Bon and Mrs. Emily Johnson, after the meeting.

Garden Club Here Offers 'Give-a-ways'

Mrs. Dora Hunter, chairman of the "Plants Exchange program, announces that the Daly City Garden Club, as a conservation project, will give surplus plants, seedlings and bulbs of their gardens to anyone who is starting a garden in any section of Daly City.

The gardens of members of the Daly City Garden Club produce abundantly and there is always a surplus in every well-established garden. The motto of the club is "Conserve and Share."

Persons who are starting new gardens or are interested in securing some of these surplus plants, may call at the home of donors and dig up the plants under the supervision of the donor, filling in the holes and placing plants in containers provided by the recipient. Instruction on planting and care of garden plants will be gladly given by the donors.

Persons interested in giving or receiving surplus plants, may telephone PLaza 6-5176 before 9:30 a.m. and after 4 p.m. any day except Sunday.

Families through home preparedness, can contribute to this nation's readiness to face disaster.

Sharon Cross 'Science Fair' First Placer

"Sensitive Flames," a project on the sensitivity of flames to sound, won first place for senior Sharon Cross in the physical science division of the Presentation High School science fair. Second place in the physical science division went to junior Sandy Gallagher. Sandy tested various types of rocket propellants in a homemade rocket. In the biological sciences division, sophomore Margaret Passanissi observed the effects of giberellic on mushrooms to win first place. Juniors Treva Gravitt and Linda Martin received second place for a joint project on chemotropisms, chemiculture, and hydroponics.

YWCA Plans Easter-time Fashion Show

The YWCA will present a "Special Delivery" Easter Fashion Show on Thursday, March 24, from 1 to 3 at Westlake Bowl. This informal social luncheon costs $1.75 per person and a free nursery is provided.

Direct from Paris comes R.C.A. Communications Cablegram announcing this Easter Parade Fashion Show featuring Penney's sleek, smart and exciting new spring stylings. The Easter theme will be carried out with appropriate decorations including bunnies, bonnets, and billboards. Are you ready for Easter? What will you wear this spring?

You'll see softened stylings that will impress you with their individuality and imagination. You'll see slim silhouettes, sharp pleats and a spiced variety of colors. Black and white will be dominant and prints will be important this year. You'll find that silk and similar lightweight fabrics will be featured. And you'll see the latest lines of lovely lingerie, accessories and hats. All to this a showing of children's stylings and you have an important show that you won't want to miss.

Make your reservations today for this Paris-inspired event by calling PL 6-7370 or PL 6-5777.

ANNOUNCING...TWO NEW-SIZE WAGON WONDERS!

The new Tudor and Fordor Falcon Wagons—sixth and seventh wonders of the Ford wagon world

See "FORD STARTIME" TV's finest hour, in living color Tuesdays on NBC-TV

THE NEW FORD FALCON WAGONS

America's station wagon specialists complete the world's largest wagon family with TWO NEW-SIZE wagons. They're Falcons in size and savings—and full-fledged Ford wagon wonders when it comes to work! With 2 feet less car to manage, you're a genius at solving traffic problems—a past master at parking.

Falcon Wagons are priced up to $154 less than other 6-passenger compact wagons. The 2-door model is America's lowest-priced 6-passenger wagon.*

Falcon gives the best gas mileage of any American-built wagon, on regular fuel. You can go up to 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline!

You get other Falcon savings, too. Repairs cost less. Change oil only once in 4,000 miles. And the Falcon's aluminized muffler normally lasts twice as long as the ordinary kind.

Longest load floor in the compact field is yours in a Falcon. It's over 7 ft. long, with cargo space totaling more than 76 cubic feet!

Full-six-passenger room, too, because Falcon Wagons are built for people. There's room for hats, hips and legs. Come see these newest wonders from the Ford wagon world! FORD DIVISION, Ford Motor Company

LINDA MAR HILLS SITE

Fund-Raising Campaign Begins For Holy Cross Lutheran Church

Pacifica will be the site of one of the most beautiful church edifices in America when construction plans unveiled this week by Holy Cross Lutheran Church are carried out.

The congregation announced launching of a fund campaign to begin construction of at least the first unit of three-level worship, education and fellowship plant high in the Linda Mar hills east of Seville drive.

Design and preliminary drawings for the building were executed by T. Norman Mansell, architect and design consultant to the United Lutheran Church in America. Mansell, who has designed hundreds of churches throughout the United States, has described the Pacifica site as one of the most magnificent locations for a church he has ever seen. He drew the Holy Cross plans especially for the site.

The church will overlook the west end of Pedro Valley, Pedro Point and the ocean. Each of its three levels will have entrances directly from the street. Employing striking concrete grillwork for the exterior walls, the architect has given the building an air of modern simplicity. A towering free-standing spire, topped by a cross, will make the building a landmark seen from miles around.

The Rev. William W. Klover Jr., pastor of the congregation, expressed the pride of the people of Holy Cross in their plans. "We are happy to be planning a building that will add to the beauty of one of the most beautiful cities in the world," Pastor Klover said. "And we are delighted to expand our plant in order to be of better service to the people of Pacifica in matters affecting their spiritual welfare."

The building fund campaign, launched this week to finance construction, will reach its climax on March 27 with a canvass of members and friends of the congregation for pledges. Gifts and pledges will be welcomed from any resident of the community interested in seeing that the church is built.

Chairman of the building committee is Luther Bergdall of Moss Beach. Vice-chairmen include Mrs. Fred Alexander, 1136 Rosita Road, Walter Langosch, 1427 Madiera Drive and Harry Steele of Rollingwood.

Bergdall has expressed hope that sufficient money will be raised during the initial fund drive to permit the congregation to construct the entire building in one operation.

The alternative, he explained, would be to build a first unit with a chapel seating 200 and with administrative offices, choir facilities, seven classrooms for Sunday School. Classroom space could be converted into a social hall seating about 150 people at tables.

Pairings For SSF Tourney Find Rams Meeting Serra Nine

Temple Sets Friday Night Family Service

A special Sabbath service honoring the National Council of Jewish Women will be held at Congregation Judea Temple House, 95 South Mayfair, Westlake, this Friday evening, March 11. This service will also be directed toward the observance of Purim, commemorating the traditional Festival of Freedom. This will be a family service with parents and children in attendance and therefore will commence at 8 o'clock. Cantor Harold Wachter will officiate.

The Religious School of Congregation Judea will hold a Special Purim Program on Sunday morning, March 13, in which all classes will participate. Children in grades prekindergarten through grade 2 will present a costume parade.

Judea Sisterhood will present a card party and luncheon on Tuesday, March 15, at the Fox Hostess Shop, 2355 Balboa street, at noon. All interested may call Mrs. George Riba, PL 6-3585, or Mrs. Stanley Pollard, PL 5-6502, for tickets.

Congregation Judea will honor two of its retiring members on the board of trustees, Municipal Judge Charles Becker, past president, and Joseph Friedman, treasurer, at a No-Host Dinner to be presented at Brentwood Lodge, South San Francisco, on Wednesday evening, March 30, at 7 o'clock. Members and friends of Congregation Judea and all wishing to attend this dinner, may forward checks as reservations, $3.50 per person, to the Temple Office, 95 South Mayfair, Daly City. The deadline for reservations is March 20.

SF To Host Jehovah Convention

Harold E. Casperson, presiding minister of the Daly City congregation, announced today that local Daly City ministers will be attending a 3-day convention in San Francisco next week. The assembly, sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, will be held at the S. F. Civic Auditorium, March 18 to 20.

"The convention is expected to attract scores of delegates from Daly City, said Casperson. "We expect over 2000 ministers to attend from the Peninsula, Coastside communities and San Francisco. Assemblies of this type are held semi-annually to aid ministers improve their ministry."

The convention climax will be the public address by Lester M. Dugan, Sunday, March 20, at 3 p.m., on the subject, "Finding Peace in a Troubled World."

All convention sessions are free and open to the public.

Seven Local Men Enlist With Navy

Seven more young men from the local area donned the Navy uniform in February, Chief Ken Gaddis, Navy recruiter in Daly City, reported today.

Now undergoing "boot" training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego are: Doyle Nickless, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nickless, 91 Santa Elena drive and Raymond Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fletcher of 323 San Diego avenue, Daly City.

From Pacifica: George Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, 1383 Solana drive. Enlistees from San Francisco and 1960 Balboa High School graduates include: Rodger Spurgeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Spurgeon, 230 Lee street, Dewayne Lorenzana, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lorenzana, 4136 Folson street, and Lawrence Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jones of 930 Cayuga street. Also from San Francisco was Juan Zepeda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Zepeda who are now residing in El Salvador.

Fourteen days leave and assignment to their next duty station or school await the new Navymen upon completion of recruit training.

PAL Indians Set Tryouts At Colma Field

Boys interested in trying-out for Daly City Police Athletic League's Indians, junior baseball team, should report to Colma Schol's Trojan Field this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bill Jones will coach the Indians, comprised of boys 12 through 14 years of age.

PAL Baseball Director Les Bastedo reports that six teams will be sponsored this year for league play. These will be the Indians and Cubs, junior nines, and the Red Sox, Yankees, Braves and Giants—midgets.

Bastedo manages the Yankees. Other team skippers are Joe Rideau, Tony Santos, Bill Wilson, Tom Reardon, and the two Marine Corps recruiting sergeants stationed here.

'February Parade' By Third Graders At Vista Mar

"February Parade" was the title of the program presented by Miss Mary O'Rourke's third grade class. The audience consisted of the other third grade boys and girls at Vista Mar School in Westlake.

The children gave a brief biography of the many famous men whose birthdays are in February — Thomas Edison, Abraham Lincoln, Babe Ruth, Charles Lindberg, as well as events and celebrations during this "famous" month.

Many of the participants were dressed in the appropriate costumes.

Ben Franklin Student Leaders Impress PTA; Mendosa Honored

By Sally Stein

"Student Body Government in Action" highlighted the Benjamin Franklin PTA meeting last week and established without doubt that today's youngsters are eager to follow in the footsteps of present day good government.

Vice president and program chairman, Mrs. Douglas B. Paulsen, introduced Dr. Mildred K. Moorin, school counselor and director of student activities, who briefly expressed the function of student government. Student body president, David Nelson, presided over the entire program during which a regular meeting took place for the benefit of the several hundred parents, teachers and friends. Student officers who participated were Kevin Burke, Bob Murray, Marc Mallinger, Skipper Smith, Claudia Guz, Billy Eagleton, Nan Miller, Pete Alba, Cathy Hellsman, Kenny Freiberg, and Guy Aronson.

A brief business meeting preceded with PTA President Mrs. Roy Milam on hand. The character thought was read by Parris Simmons, eighth grade teacher, entitled "Blind Men and the Elephant," written by John Sax in 1890. The most parent attendance award for the month of January was made to Douglas B. Paulsen's eighth grade room and the February award went to Simmons' eighth grade class.

The next business consisted of the election of a nominating committee to recommend PTA officers for the forthcoming term. The committee elected included Mary Contraros, Ruth Jones, Sally Stein, Mary Ann Frieberg and John Belforte. Principal Fred Schweickhardt presented William Mendosa, physical education instructor, with the school's second 1960 Honorary Life Membership Award. These awards are made to deserving persons in recognition of outstanding service to the community. Mendosa, born in San Francisco, was raised in Alameda where he attended elementary and high school. His schooling was interrupted after two years with the death of his father, which required him to secure employment until his enlistment in the Marine Corps. He served three years during World War II, after which he resumed his education at Santa Rosa Junior College and lettered in football and track. He next attended San Jose State College and was graduated in 1953. As a collegian, Bill was an outstanding varsity boxer. Mendosa has taught the past six years at the elementary and high school levels.

A social hour followed the meeting with the Mesdames Esther Klevesahl, Helen Gethel, Anita Shanoian, Olga Rozzo, Ruth Jones, Evelyn Long, and Sally Stein, eighth grade roommothers, as hostesses.

Larkin Hall Site of OLM Rummage Sale

On Monday, March 14, the Westlake Catholic Women will sponsor their annual rummage sale at Larkin Hall in the Civic Auditorium of San Francisco, located at Grove and Larkin streets.

The hours are from 9 until 5.

Mrs. John Cresalia, chairman for this sale, has stated that many new and valuable items donated from leading department stores throughout the city will be on sale, as well as jewelry, wearing apparel, books, toys, draperies, linens, bric-a-brac, plants, shoes, household appliances, furniture, and notions.

The school building fund of Our Lady Of Mercy Parish in Westlake will benefit from this sale.

Catholic Women Meet Monday

Mrs. Robert Markey, president of Westlake Catholic Women, will conduct the March meeting next Monday immediately following devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help in the church on Elmwood drive.

This meeting on the same day as the main sale of rummage, sponsored by the group, will be brief, but important, as the report of the rummage sale will be given, as well as the report on the pre-sale of rummage, to be held on Saturday, March 12, in the parish hall.

Mrs. George Comisky and Mrs. George Snell will give their report on the Day Of Recollection which was held as the Lenten activity for the women, last Saturday.

Mrs. Dine Tonelli, historian, will have the fashion show pictures which were ordered by the women, available at this meeting.

The festival committee will give their plans on the various activities and booths which are scheduled. The investment committee, under the direction of Mrs. Richard McHugh, will hold the second of their incentive awards.

Hospital chairman, Mrs. Astore Bucciarelli, will welcome all new members to this meeting and have as her assistants the Mesdames: Alfred Barca, Colin Campbell, Raymond Lommatzsch, and Robert Stewart.

PTA To Meet Next Tuesday

The March meeting of the Garden Village PTA will be held on Tuesday, March 15, at 8 p.m. in the multi-use room of the Garden Village School.

According to Mrs. Phillip Glebow, PTA president, election of officers is scheduled and Mrs. Joyce Tubbs, fourth grade teacher, will be the speaker on "Child Psychology." Refreshments will be served.

B'NAI B RITH, San Francisco Women's Council, is readying for their annual donors' luncheon on March 30 in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel. Esther Block, fashion co-ordinator, 69 Forest Grove drive, Daly City, places a necklace on Shirley Leventhal, a model, 78 Terrace avenue, Daly City, while Rae Levy, another model, 2038 31st avenue, San Francisco, looks on.

Before entering the Army, Spoulos was employed by Pacific Gas and Electric Company, San Francisco. He is a 1954 graduate of Jefferson High School. His father lives at 6233 Mission street.

BERRY DIRECTS STUDENT GOVT. AT THORNTON

Eddie Berry, newly elected president of the student body, presided over the February assembly at Thornton School. The theme of the assembly was safety, and President Berry spoke to the group on the meaning and implications of public safety.

The newly elected representatives to the student council for the spring semester were introduced by council secretary Diane Quinteros and include, Victor Orence, Charlene Marshall, Nola Gould, James Tarintino, Alice Berry, and David Malinoff.

Guest speaker was Art Finley, who appears on local television as Mayor Art. Finley, in addition to entertaining the students, contributed to he astsembly heme by outlining the safety precautions taken in a television studio to protect workmen and performers.

Westlake Catholic Women Offer Top Items In Two-Day Rummage

Final plans and sorting of rummage is taking place this week by the Westlake Catholic Women of Our Lady of Mercy Parish in preparation for their annual rummage sale. This event will take place this Saturday, March 12, at the Parish Hall of Our Lady Of Mercy, located on Elmwood drive in Daly City, from 10 a.m. till 4 p.m., and again on Monday, March 14, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Larkin Hall, San Francisco.

Over 200 women of the parish, under the direction of Mrs. John Cresalia, chairman, have been preparing items for this sale since last fall.

Several new skirts, blouses and other articles for women will be featured in the ladies department. A leading local drug firm has donated new cosmetics as well as jewelry for the sale. Beautiful sets of glasses are available for the early bird who needs replacements. Featured again this year will be books and records and among this group of books will be collectors items as well as an assortment of sheet music.

Of special interest to women will be some fur coats, which are in excellent condition. Also available will be a few fur stoles, which are sure to go first thing as soon as the sale begins.

Many men's items are in perfect condition, such as golf clubs and bags as well as fishing equipment not to forget the clothes that most men can use, such as work pants as well as sport shirts.

For boys of all ages are an assortment of bikes as well as balls and games and a variety of clothes.

Silver items of great value as well as crockery and dinnerware, china and crystal items are amongst the large assortment of miscellaneous and household articles.

Draperies and linens will feature many new selections as well as usable pieces of material and certainly have a place in any room of the home. The patterns and quality of the as practical.

Also of interest to women, especially the young girls will be some formals which are in perfect condition. Luggage is available for the person who needs extra pieces and does travel frequently. Also on hand are venetian blinds, with very little use and providing they are the right dimensions will look like new in the home. The tapes are new and the blinds are white.

Garden furniture, in limited quantity, but perfect quality is available for the rummage sale. Many of these articles are a "one only item" and few are made out of the ever popular aluminum which will enhance the beauty of any garden.

One thing to keep in mind, for these objects are bound to go fast, is that the doors to the rummage sale will open early in the morning and within a few short moments the valuable "one only's" will be purchased.

Baby furniture as well as clothes and the million and one items that are needed such as high chairs, car seats, play pens, sterilizers, buggys, strollers have been put in good working order and are ready to be sold to the needy mother.

All kinds of toys for every age, such as wagons, skates, guns, games, dolls, tractors and tanks and the too numerous odds and ends in the toy line that many a child has outgrown but that might suit the ages bracket you are looking for are on hand to delight a child.

Books of all sorts for children are in good condition as well as readable comic books.

The millinary department will have several new hats on hand as well as some leading makes of hats which are in good condition. Many of the selections are perfect for the costume party that is approaching or perhaps a summer trip which warrants a big "floppy" straw for protection from the sun. Also the latest in styles are shown at this sale.

There will be a large assortment of purses of all colors and shapes, with new styles as well as good quality. The shoe department will offer shoes for each member of the family along with slippers, boots, tennis shoes, play shoes and an assortment of "dancing slippers." Always of special interest for the person who likes to browse around is the "bric-a-brac" department, which contains a voluminous amount of odds and ends including painting materials, pictures, figurines and ever so many wall pieces and ideas for prize gifts.

Plants, electric equipment, lamps, sewing notions, stationery, pottery, tablecloths and miscellaneous items will all be arranged along with several hundred other objects which aren't mentioned here for this fund raising event. Whatever it is — "you name it" and the Westlake Catholic Women have got it — at this annual sale.

All proceeds will benefit Our Lady Of Mercy Building fund, as do all other parish events, for the construction of a school for the grammar grade children living in this parish. Also planned in this building fund is the enlarging of the convent for the sisters.

Girl Scout Cookie Sales Aid Activities

Is your cookie jar empty? If so, be ready to buy some from the Girl Scouts in the Daly City-Colma district when they start selling cookies on March 18.

Hundreds of uniformed Girl Scouts (Brownies, Intermediates and Seniors) will go door-to-door and sell four kinds of cookies.

These are: chocolate mint-wafers, assorted creme sandwiches, royal lemon thins, and royal vanilla. Price per box is 50 cents. No advance orders will be taken by the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Imelda Ellis, area cookie sale chairman, says 4625 cases (12 boxes in a case) have been ordered.

A major portion of the money earned from the sale of cookies is used for payments on, and maintenance of, Camp Sonora.

Camp Sonora is the Girl Scouts' camp in the High Sierras. Each year, hundreds of Girl Scouts enjoy camping and outdoor activities at Sonora. There is a large swimming pool, and many buildings that need care and maintenance.

This winter, many troops made the trek to Sonora and the snows. The camp is used the year around.

The cookie sale ends on March 29.

FOREMOST TASTES FRESHER* in cooking

THAN ANY OTHER EVAPORATED MILK

*Foremost is an entirely new kind of evaporated milk . . . guaranteed to taste better, fresher than any other brand. The reason? Foremost's secret method of processing. It takes only seconds — other brands take 10 times longer! No wonder the others taste over-cooked and have that over-cooked yellow color. But not Foremost! One look at its whiter color and you know it's fresher. One taste and you'll be sold. Try it—you'll discover it really does taste fresher.

County-wide Television Workshops Bring Teachers Latest Techniques

James R. Tormy, San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools, reports the second of a series of county-wide classroom-studio teacher instructional television workstructional television workshops to be held during the month of March.

These workshops are part of the planned program of giving the classroom teachers an opportunity to meet with the studio teachers and discuss the mutual problems concerning the use of the television programs. Enthusiasm for these particular meetings has run very high among the teachers as they are able to meet and talk with the television teachers. Many suggestions and recommendations are exchanged in these meetings.

Kenneth V. Hill, Coordinator of Educational Television for San Mateo County, has been responsible for making arrangements for the meetings, which teachers from the entire county attend. The workshops cover the areas of speech improvement, current events, foreign language, math, science, and social science.

The television teachers involved are: Mrs. Ruth Jackson, Consultant in Speech Education for the Palo Alto Unified School District; Edward Radenzel, Telegraph News Editor for the San Francisco Chronicle; Noe Reyburn, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Santa Cruz County Schools; Dr. Lawrence W. Swan, Assistant Professor of Biological Science, San Francisco State College; Dr. Newton Hawley, Associate Professor of Mathematics, Stanford University; and Dr. Manuel Guerra, Instructor of Spanish for KQED and Consultant of Foreign Languages under the National Defense Education Act.

The "Say It Now" speech improvement program workshop met in the Burlingame School District on March 3 with Mrs. Ruth Jackson; Exploring the News" with Edward Radenzel met in the San Carlos School District on March 8; the "Saludos Amigos" and "Hola Ninos" Spanish workshop will meet in the Millbrae School District on March 11 with Dr. Manuel Guerra. Dr. Newton Hawley of the "Math Ways" program will meet in the San Bruno School District on March 15; "Science In Our World" with Dr. Lawrence Swan will meet in the Redwood City School District on March 22; and the "About You" series with Noel Reyburn will meet in the San Mateo City District on March 29.

Tormey pointed out that there is a great deal more work involved in the use of television than "just turning the set on." A great deal of time must be spent in curriculum development and program planning involving teachers, administrators, and curriculum specialists. It was also emphasized that one of the most important persons responsible for the best utilization of television is the classroom teacher.

These workshops have been planned at the request of the 16 school districts using instructional television in San Mateo county.

'BIG COMPANY NOBODY OWNS' HOSTS DUVALL

The big company "nobody owns"—quite yet—will be host to Howard Duvall of Daly City Volkswagen and his wife when they visit Germany on a two-week tour which begins next Sunday at San Francisco Airport.

The company is Volkswagen with headquarters in Wolfsburg. Duvall explained that it is about to acquire its first stockholders and be "privatized," as the transition from government trusteeship to a stock company is described in Germany.

The company was turned over to the Federal Republic of Germany in September, 1949, as trustee by the British occupation forces. Preparations are now underway, he said, to issue stock; 20 percent to be held by the Bonn government; 20 percent by the State of Lower Saxony where Wolfsburg is located just five miles from the East German border; and 60 percent by the public with employees of Volkswagen being given preference. Shares will be limited to ten per person to distribute ownership as widely as possible and prevent outside control of the company which had sales of more than $650,000,000 last year throughout the world. Proceeds of the stock sale and dividends on government shares are to go to a foundation to finance scientific research and education.

Duvall said the itinerary for their trip will include Bavarian castles, the historic old town of Rothenburg with its well-preserved medieval walls; beautifully decorated and ancient country churches; Munich, a publishing and art center; Heidelburg, the university city with its reminders of "The Student Prince"; bustling Berlin and Frankfort, site of Europe's largest international airport. In addition they will have an opportunity to see the countryside on bus trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Duvall will fly direct to Germany by chartered plane with other Northern California Volkswagen dealers. This is one of a series of tours which is taking all Volkswagen dealers and their wives (more than 1100 passengers) abroad.

Colma Children Tour DC Water Department

Jack Haley was the host of a tour at the Daly City Water Department taken recently by third grade boys and girls of Colma K-6 School. The classes of Barbara Busetto and Hester Blaylock are studying "Our City and County." One of the important questions of the study concerns the source of water supply. The children learned that Daly City has ten wells, and that the water is pumped from these wells.

The tour included observation of the pumps. The boys and girls were interested to know that Daly City has six reservoirs in which the water is stored. The fact that the water is pumped through a sand trap at the water works to make it cleaner, and that it has chemicals added to it to make it purer was of great interest. It was amazing to learn that one family uses about 75 to 100 gallons of water daily. The water is paid for at the water company. The amount used is measured by a meter.

The study of the source of water also includes the appreciation of the fact that water is one of the most important natural resources, and that its conservation is vital to the welfare of the population.

Parents who accompanied the children on this tour included Mrs. Harry Dignam, Mrs. Marino Palmieri, Mrs. Wade Watkins, Mrs. Gino Mibelli, and Mrs. Balestreri.

W'lake-Olympia PTA Units To Be Separate

Westlake-Olympia PTA held its March meeting last Thursday at Olympia School.

Mrs. Flossie Hjelmstad gave the thought for the evening, "The Brotherhood of Man."

Boys from Scout Troop 63 under the leadership of Dick Merritt posted the colors and lead in the flag salute.

An important aspect of the business meeting, chaired by President Morris Liston, was the decision to separate into two PTA units, effective June 1, 1960.

Liston introduced the speaker, Mrs. Eleanor Stern, who spoke on remedial reading. Mrs. Stern is principal of Town School of Reading in San Francisco. She stated some children have gained as much as 5 years reading ability in one year. This can be accomplished through mechanical devices, oral reading, choral reading, and of course lots of patience.

The third grade room mothers served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Homemaker Program Set In Pacifica

A program designed to interest the homemaker has been planned for the next meeting of the Pacifica Federated Women's Club. "Bright New World" is a film journey through time, showing how men of different ages have used color, how paint and glass are made today, and how modern use of color improves our homes and places where we work. The second film is entitled "Your Home As You Like It" and features ideas in home decorating and remodeling.

Meeting starts at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, March 15, at the Sea Bowl in Rockaway Beach.

Aids 'Shelters Purim Dance For Israel'

Shelters For Israel is busy with plans for its third annual Purim Ball on Saturday, March 19, at Westlake auditorium. Sam Stern's orchestra will play for the dancing. Home-made refreshments will be featured.

Tickets are $1.75 and reservations can be made with Mrs. S. Friedman, LO 6-3210, or Mrs. J. Farkas, JU 8-0543. Transportation also is available.

Don Gaspar de Portola camped on the present site of Los Angeles August 2, 1769; the party experienced three earthquakes.

Luncheon Party

A luncheon and card party will be given by the Northern Peninsula Chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) on Saturday, March 12, at noon at Lake Merced Aquatic Sports Center.

Admission is $1.75 and March 10 is the final date on which to make reservations, according to Mrs. Eugene Cohen, chairman. For reservations, call PL 6-0707.

The chapter will hold a regular membership meeting on Thursday, March 10, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. David Zisko, 2343 40th avenue, San Francisco. A demonstration on the art of hors d'oeuvres making will follow the business meeting.

NINE WESTMOOR SENIORS EARN BANK'S ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Nine winning seniors in the 1960 Bank of America Achievement Awards competition at Westmoor High School were announced today by Principal Glenn South.

For the four top winners, their selection by a faculty committee marks the first step in area competition for cash awards ranging from $25 to $1000 in each of four categories of study.

Under the Achievement Awards program, they will undergo further screening for the right to enter a zone event April 26 at Redwood City for schools of this vicinity.

Candidates are judged on the basis of scholarship, extracurricular activities and potential service to humanity.

Winners eligible for zone competition, each of whom will receive an engraved plaque, are: Sandra Stipelkovich, Science and Mathematics; James Mall, Fine Arts; Ellen Rosenberg, Liberal Arts, and Judith Zander, Vocational Arts.

Seniors who will receive certificates of merit for outstanding records in subjects at the local school are: Robert Bender, Trades and Industrial Arts; Sandra Stipelkovich, Mathematics; Leonard Jacobsen, Laboratory Science; James Mall, Music; Ellen Rosenberg, English; Karen Brehm, Social Science; Ann Stillway, Foreign Languages; Judith Zander, Business, and Barbara Tyroler, Home Economics.

First place winners at the zone event in each field of study — fine arts, science and mathematics, liberal arts and vocational arts — will advance to finals in May. Each is assured a minimum of $100 and opportunity to win top award of $1000.

Second and third place winners at the zone event in each field receive $50 and $25.

In the statewide Achievement Awards program, cash prizes will total $64,200 this year. The total number of awards, including trophy plaques, certificates and ribbons will exceed 7000.

Purpose of the program is to encourage and recognize scholastic and citizenship attainments among students of more than 600 participating California public, parochial and private schools.

ACCIDENTS

There were 17 personal injury accidents on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge during January 1960, reports the National Automobile Club.

Highway Patrol Urges Dimming Of Headlights

Motorists who fail to lower their headlight beams when they should will get their full share of attention from California Highway Patrolmen, an announcement from CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden disclosed today.

"We note that drivers are becoming lax in lowering their headlight beams," Crittenden added, "and we want to stress the importance of complying with a law whose purpose is to make driving at night safer.

"Compliance really is a simple matter. All the law requires is that you lower your headlight beams at night when within 500 feet of an approaching vehicle or when you are following another car within 200 feet."

The commissioner expressed the view that carelessness is the main reason for failure to dim lights. But he added he has experienced occasions in which he felt that the other driver had deliberately refused to lower his beams.

"These people are a menace to highway safety and must be dealt with accordingly," Crittenden declared. "I am satisfied that illegal use of high beams contributed to many of the collisions that killed and injured so many persons on California's streets and highways last year."

Since March, 1956, the State has obtained $457,000 in Federal assistance to aid development of survival plans, the California Disaster Office announced.

TEEN TALK

By Joe Bavaresco

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

Since you are a teenage advisor, advise me. I am 35 years old and a young girl who lives near me thinks she is in love with me. She makes it a point to tell all her friends and other neighbors. I am a happily married man, but I don't want to hurt her feelings. How do I discourage her?

MR. S. L.

Dear MR. S. L.:

It isn't something new for a young teenager to think she is in love with an older man. It is, to her, sophisticated to be madly in love with a man older than herself. However, if you feel certain that you did not encourage this, you have nothing to fear. It is just a teenage crush and will pass in time. As for your neighbors, you have nothing to be afraid of because I am sure they understand the many emotions of a young girl and do not take to heart what she might say. What should be done is to ignore the situation completely and do nothing whatsoever, no matter how slight, to encourage her. She is just a young girl going through different stages of her emotional teenage life. The only trouble you can cause is by making a big thing of this situation. Let it ride—time cures all.

* * *

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

My boyfriend and I have been going together for six months. My problem is that three times in a row he has asked his friends for money in front of me so we could afford to go out on a date. I am a junior in high school and he has graduated from high school. He always has enough money for gas and his car payments, but not enough money for a date. It is embarrassing for me when he asks his friends for money in front of me. What can I do?

PERPLEXED

Dear PERPLEXED:

You do have a problem. It is bad for any boy to borrow money. It is not a good habit to get into and a harder one to break. Perhaps you are making too many demands on him. Perhaps the place you want to go on a date he cannot afford and, therefore, to make an impression on you, he will ask for money from his friends. This could be his way of telling you that you are too expensive, but if you do not make demands on him and your dates are not very expensive, then I think he is irresponsible and a bad risk as a boyfriend or a future husband because if he borrows money now, he will borrow it later. It will get so that he cannot afford to pay it back and, therefore, not only lose his friends but lose your respect. Shakespeare put it best of all when he said, "Neither a borrower nor a lender be." In this way, you won't sacrifice the loss of friends or the respect of them. If you are thinking about him for marriage, I would seriously suggest that you think twice so tell your boyfriend if he doesn't stop borrowing money from his friends, some day he will have no friends to borrow money from.

* * *

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

I am a boy who is 16 years old. My mother and father insist that I bring home the girl that I am dating. I am not going steady with her. I have only dated her a couple of times, but my mother seems to feel that she would be more at ease if she knew and had met the girl that I have been going out with. I go out with about four different girls. My mother thinks this is unloyal, but I don't want to get serious with any particular girl right now and I don't feel that I should have to bring them home for approval as long as we enjoy each other's company. If I did, the girl would probably get the wrong idea and think perhaps I was serious. I want to go to college when I graduate and I don't want any girl thinking seriously right now. How can I convince my parents that they are wrong?

CECIL E.

Dear CECILE E.:

I don't believe that it is too much to ask for a boy to bring home his date. Your parents are only interested in seeing who you are interested in and what kind of girls you are dating. They want to know if the girls are clean, neat and something to be proud of. This is important to parents and they feel that they have a right to meet the girl. This is their side of the story; however, I do understand your side. It is embarrassing for teenage guys to ask some girl over to their house to meet his parents and it just isn't done unless you are serious, but perhaps in your parents' day, it was. Perhaps if you told your parents what you did not your dates and the enjoyable times you have and explained to them that they have nothing to fear, I think that they would be more at ease, so take this to heart as your parents have your welfare at heart. Remember, parents love you and be thankful that you have parents who are interested in what you are doing rather than those who don't care because parents who are delinquent and don't care usually have teenaged children who don't care and are delinquent also. There is no such thing as a juvenile delinquent, but there is such a thing as a parent delinquent.

* * *

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Teenage life is like a babbling brook — it is smooth in some spots and rocky in others. but if it is clean and fresh all the way through, it will empty out into a large and successful sea of happiness.

* * *

If you would like a membership card to the T.N.D.C. (Teenagers Non-Drinking Club), write a letter to Joe Bavaresco, Camp Meeker, California.

* * *

Mr. Bavaresco is now available for lectures and talks on teenage and children's problems, so if you would like him to be a guest speaker at your next club or parents' meeting, you may contact him by writing Joe Bavaresco, Camp Meeker, California.

RAM THINCLADS ALMOST CLEAN SWEEP GALILEO

Westmoor's varsity and C's thinclads whipped Galileo last Tuesday while the B's settled for a 52-52 tie.

Pacing the varsity's 70½-42½ margin was Pete Daniels. The fugitive from the basketball court pole vaulted 10 feet and raced to a 15.8 timing in the 120 high hurdles. Other outstanding times were turned in by Tom Dake, low hurdles, 21.0, and George Herbst, 220 yarder, 22.5. Roger Johnson's 20-foot 11-inch broad jump was also a pace-maker.

Chad Reade sped to 9.9 in the 70-yard high hurdles for the B's. Bob Borba and Carlos Rivas scampered well for the C's, who won, 40-37. Borba's 40.4 in the 330 and 16.4 in the 150 along with Rivas' 1:33.4 in the 660 yarder earned them first place.

'Humanism' To Be Explored By Unitarians

Sid Temple will speak on "Humanism" at this Sunday evening's meeting of the Golden Gate Unitarian Society, at 8 p.m. at 4245 Lawton street and Great Highway.

He will trace the background of the Humanist movement throughout the world and will discuss the role of a 'humanist' position in the Unitarian religion. A question period will follow his remarks. The public is invited.

The Golden Gate Unitarian Society is now meeting each Sunday for its church school at 10:30 a.m. and its adult service at 8 p.m. Inquiries on the unit's program may be made to Mrs. Jean Stenmark, JU 6-4749, or Mrs. Liz Gianopoulos, PL 5-6976.

Citizens should use CONELRAD — 640 or 1240 on the radio dial — for official information and instructions in time of disaster.

NEW CLASS IN ART AT ADULT SCHOOL

The Jefferson Adult Evening School announces the opening of a new class in the field of art, called "Portraiture, Life Drawing and Painting." The hours of the class are from 7 to 10 p.m. and it is held in Art Room A and B. Call PL 5-1162 for registration information.

For the beginners, the course is an introduction to line drawing, values, composition, perspective and modeling, with many composed arrangements. For the more advanced student, the class is an opportunity to draw and experiment in any medium.

Mrs. Lois Locker, instructor, has exhibited her work at the Brooklyn Museum, Los Angeles County Museum, San Francisco Art Association, Loyola University, and was a member of the Art Faculty at the University of Southern California. Many of her paintings have been reviewed in Los Angeles, as well as in national art magazines.

Westlake Association Reaffirms Its Stand

Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association directors Monday night forwarded letters to the Daly City Council and San Mateo County Board of Supervisors reaffirming the WSIA stand of March 2, 1959, backing Junipero Serra freeway route Y-2 and the council's presentation for the same route at the January public hearing held by the Division of Highways in South San Francisco.

She Saves Money!

By shopping the pages of the Westlake Times—Daly City Shopping News. Mrs. Housewife (and her spouse, too, of course) can plan her week's shopping by simply turning the pages of her favorite weekly newspaper. And she can do her "buying" from over 350 classified and display ads appearing each week . . . . covering every "commodity" from ironing to groceries. Consumers shop the pages of the Westlake Times—Daly City Shopping News because they know that's where the top stores and services place their advertising messages. These favorite newspapers carry more retail advertising (including food) than any other weekly in Northern San Mateo county. And, besides real cash savings, the Westlake Times—Daly City Shopping News offers the kind of news and picture coverage that makes you want to read every page. It's news about your community that you won't find ANYWHERE else.

The Key That Opens The Door To 34,200 Homes . . .

(And Eager, Qualified Buyers in Every One)

WESTLAKE TIMES

DALY CITY SHOPPING NEWS

He Makes Money!

Northern San Mateo County merchants have been building sales and profits for years by advertising in the area's finest media — Westlake Times - Daly City Shopping News. Where else can a merchant find the key that opens the door to 34,200 homes every week, at less cost than any other media in the area? It makes good business sense to a merchant to place his message before 140,000 prospective buyers in newspapers that are read cover to cover. The merchant knows, for example, that his cost to print and distribute 34,200 of his own advertising leaflets each week for an 8-inch by 10-inch message would cost a minimum of $525 a week, and readership would be doubtful. He knows he can buy that amount of space in the Westlake Times-Daly City Shopping News for less than $80, and be assured maximum reader exposure to his message—and more important—immediate reader reaction to his sales message. Hundreds of merchants know this to be true. You're missing out on sales if you haven't yet used the most dynamic media in your trading area — the Westlake Times-Daly City Shopping News.

Vets' Office Defines 'Income' For Those Applying For Pensions

What is considered "income" in applying for pension under the new law which goes into effect July 1, 1960?

The Veterans Administration gave the following guide today since the amount of annual income determines the size of the pension payment or whether or not there will be any pension payment at all.

All wages, salaries, profits, interest, dividends are considered income. So are retirement pensions, annuities and Social Security payments.

In fact, all money received must be counted as income except these eight classifications:

1. The compensation or pension payments received from the VA.
2. Donations from private or public relief or welfare sources.
3. Government life insurance payments and payments of servicemen's indemnity.
4. Payments by the Armed Forces of the six months death gratuity.
5. Social Security lump sum death payments.
6. Payments from public or private retirement, annuity or endowment plans up to the amount equal to the money contributed or paid in by the veteran or dependent in order to become eligible for the plan. After contributions have been recovered all of the pension or annuity is counted as income.
7. Proceeds of fire insurance policies.

There is an additional exception for the widow or children of a deceased veteran:

8. The money expended for the burial of the veteran as well as any money expended to pay off his just debts may be deducted from income reports.

Under the new pension system, which goes into effect July 1, 1960, veterans or dependents can not waive any part or all of a pension, annuity or endowment in order to qualify for VA pension payments under the income limitations.

Full information on any phase of the pension program may be obtained at the nearest VA office.

Silvestri Musters 'Hometown' Applause

When Bob Silvestri captured his second straight San Francisco City Golf Tourney title Sunday among his most enthusiastic supporters were a flock of Daly City residents.

Bob, who has won the SF event three times, has lived in the greater Daly City area most of his life.

THE poster message invites all youngsters to the Benjamin Franklin Carnival to be held Saturday, March 12, from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., in the school's multi-purpose room and on the playground. Looking forward to this first Ben Franklin PTA Carnival are students (left to right) Robert Stein, Danny Colangelo, Dorothy Getchel, and Rena Costa. The carnival will feature games, rides, movies, hot-dogs, grab-bags, cotton candy, popcorn, drinks, and, of course, prizes for all. All proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school children.

South San Francisco Women's Club Sets Arts-Crafts Exhibit

South San Francisco Woman's Club will present an art and crafts exhibit on Wednesday, March 16, in their clubhouse at 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco. Residents of South San Francisco are invited to attend the exhibit between the hours of 1 p.m. and 9 p.m.

"The members of the South San Francisco Woman's Club believe that there are many residents of our community who express themselves in works of art, such as oil and water paintings, photographic studies, and beautifully formed articles of crafts such as ceramics and copper jewelry," stated Mrs. William Cottenham, club president.

"Our club is proud to provide an opportunity for our talented residents to display their work for the viewing and admiration of their fellow citizens. Our 'South San Francisco Artists' all share the same motivation in their artistic efforts—purely for pleasure—although some have received monetary reward for their art projects.

"Senior art students at South San Francisco High School have also been invited to participate in our exhibit. This exhibit is for the pleasure of South San Francisco and is being presented without an admission charge."

A city-wide art and craft exhibit has never been presented by the Woman's Club although their clubhouse has been the scene of nearly every other kind of activity. In the 19 years since the dedication of the building, it has become the symbol of a variety of club activities such as installation, card parties, luncheons and dinners, carnivals, literary and garden teas, federation meetings, floral fiestas and a hobby show.

During the war years the club assisted in the war efforts by permitting the building to become the local headquarters of War Price and Rationing Board.

The club building became a reality through the determined efforts of early members intent upon accomplishing the Federation goal of clubhouse ownership. For approximately 17 years, every club affair was a fund-raising event conducted by energetic members with the one goal their common objective.

One of those early-day members who is still active is Mrs. Andrew Hynding, a charter member of the South San Francisco Woman's Club, an early-day chairman of the building fund, and club president in 1940 when the clubhouse was dedicated with great civic pride. Among others who worked toward this final achievement and who still give much of their energy to the club are the Mesdames Mary Eschelbach, E. N. Fourcans, Carmelo Imprescia, E. P. Kauffmann, Mollie Lundberg, Jack Lyle, Leonard McLeod.

Mrs. Robert Whitehead is chairman of the art and craft exhibit, coordinating all activities including invitations and acceptances and consulting with Mrs. George Hulstede, who is the Federated District Art Chairman.

Posters and publicity are being handled by the Mesdames Richard Jordan, Fred Keil Jr. and Ralph Marcus.

Light refreshments will be served with Mrs. Thomas Needham in charge.

OLPH SCOUT TROOP HAS DUAL EVENT

Boy Scout Troop 243 held its annual charter presentation and Court of Honor at Our Lady of Perpetual Help School hall last Saturday evening.

Presentation of the new charter was made by Jack/ Hurt, Lake Merced District Executive, to C. J. Ragone, president of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Men's Club, sponsor of the Scout units in the area.

Advancement awards and year pins were presented by Scoutmaster Stanley White and Assistant Scoutmaster Joel Cook. A special Scout of the Month award, purchased from funds appropriated by the sponsoring Men's Club, was presented to Philip Popejoy, by Assistant Scoutmaster Harry Hettel.

All arrangements for the roast beef dinner and ensuing program were made by Arthur and Lydia Ramos.

Court Infant Of Prague Has Rummage Sale

Court Infant of Prague 1389, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold a rummage sale this Saturday, March 12, at 324 Baden avenue, South San Francisco, from 9 until 5.

A wide selection of good used men's, women's and children's clothing, household articles and many miscellaneous items are being assembled and priced for the sale. Mrs. Mary Eschelbach is chairman of the event. The profits derived from the sale will be used for further the charitable activities of the organization.

PTA Publicity Woman Thanks The Newspaper

Dear Mr. Brandshaw:

It gives me great pleasure to express appreciation for the excellent coverage and cooperation shown to Benjamin Franklin PTA during the past year. It has been a great privilege to work with your staff who have always been very courteous, considerate and cooperative at all times in every respect.

The numerous articles that appeared in The Westlake Times and The Record have adequately publicized the many events and conveyed the activities of our unit to the members of our organization which, to say the least, has been second to none in establishing a closer relationship.

Let us continue working together for the best interests of our growing community. Many thanks from all of us.

Yours very truly,
Sally Stein,
Publicity Chairman

LAW IN ACTION

SPEEDIER JUSTICE

Courts and lawyers keep on trying to simplify our legal procedures. For California courts are hard pressed to keep pace with our population and business expansion. California has led the country in streamlining our court rules.

In 1958; for example, under legislation, the courts adopted pre-trial procedure to speed up trials and to try to settle disputes before they get to trial. By new pre-trial and discovery procedures both sides in a dispute may get to see the evidence before the case goes to trial.

In recent years, the federal courts have also adopted simpler rules.

They have used "masters" to help narrow the legal or factual issues in a case. Such masters are not judges but act for them under instructions.

After a master's findings are filed, a judge may then try the case on its merits on the remaining undecided facts, thus cutting the trial short.

Such masters have helped in many a long and complicated case, like the one now before the U. S. Supreme Court over California and Arizona's water rights on the Colorado river.

Without such spade work, the Supreme Court could handle few other cases. In one complex anti-trust case, the master held 350 days of hearings, reviewed 100,000 pages of evidence, heard 173 witnesses, and looked into 45,000 documents.

Since 1938, referees in bankruptcy have helped to relieve federal courts by handling much of the bankruptcy work.

English courts have used masters and other extra-judicial officers to speed up cases for centuries. Indeed, some such practices go back to the Tenth century.

Although California as well as federal courts have advanced the speedy handling of cases, they are still hard at work to find better ways to move the nation's legal business through the courts.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Molossi, Stoller Led League; Dougherty, Brown Paced W'moor

Daly City basketball scoring in the Peninsula League race featured Jeff High capturing honors for having the No. 1 point producers.

Gary Molossi, 210 points, led all cagers with a 15.0 average. In the B's it was Sonny Stoller, 161, for a 11.5 average. Bill Dougherty edged Barry Krohn for Westmoor leadership in the varsity, while Harry Brown, off to a quick start, had to hold off a late season bid by Jim Kennedy to capture Ram B scoring. Midget, Junior Baseball Team Managers To Attend Meetings

Daly City's Department of Parks and Recreation would like to extend an invitation to all managers of midget and junior baseball teams to attend meetings to be held as follows:

Tuesday, March 22 — 7:30 p.m., Room A—War Memorial Community Center, 144 Hiliside boulevard. For all managers of junior baseball teams ages 14 and under.

Thursday, March 24 — 7:30 p.m., Room A—War Memorial Community Center. For all managers of midget baseball teams ages 12 and under.

In accordance with the Daly City junior baseball rules, "a player must not have reached his 14th birthday prior to March 1, 1960. The same date applies to the midget baseball league, however the age is different. "A player must not have reached his 12th birthday prior to March 1, 1960."

Because of the apparent increased interest of many new clubs wishing to enter the Daly City League, priorities have been set up on the following basis:

1. Clubs having participated in the league in the past two seasons will be given first consideration.

2. New clubs seeking admittance that are within the Jefferson Elementary School District will be given second consideration.

3. Out of town teams, or teams not within the Jefferson Elementary School District will be placed on a waiting list in order they apply for admission. These teams will be admitted as facilities and league schedules permit.

The purpose of the managers' meetings is to make necessary changes in the rules, discuss starting dates of the leagues, arrange schedules, rosters, fees, etc.

For further information contact the Department of Parks and Recreation at PL 5-0850, extension 18, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

BEN FRANKLIN FACULTY EDGE EIGHTH GRADE

Eighth grade basketball team of Benjamin Franklin were beaten last Thursday by the faculty, 35-34.

It was a close game all the way as the faculty huffed and puffed up and down the court in the multi-use room at Benjamin Franklin. The score changed sides many times as Gary Mendoza of the eighth graders pounded the net for a total of 22 points.

John Belforte starred for the faculty as he collected 15 points. At half time the school team led the faculty, 20-12.

It was the first time that the faculty played the school team. The PTA served refreshments to the overflow throng of students and parents after the game.

For the faculty, Robert Daugherty had 10 points while Frank Ramirez scored two. Ramirez' field goal was the winning bucket. Other faculty players were John Luppino, James Sharpen, Douglas Paulsen, Charles Smedley and Bill Mendoza.

Dave Nelson had 8 points for the eighth graders. Jim Orlich, son of Jeff High Coach Mike Orlich, was blanked.

READY to gobble up any grounders that come their way are these two Westmoor shortstops. Vying for the short-patch post are Dan O'Connor and Rich Morales. O'Connor has two years of experience with the varsity, hitting a solid .281 last year. Ram Coach Rod Losberger is "high" on Morales, who has no experience but a long range and quick hands.

SPORTS SPIN

By LOU LUCIA

OH! HOW I MISS YOU TONIGHT: One of Westmoor's better all-around athletes may not be performing varsity sports next year if his family decides to move Eastward. Basketball Coach Tony Giammona says "Handy" Andy Saranchock will be greatly missed if the lad's folks move. This is not to mention Football Coach Pete Matisi, or any of Andy's teammates. Saranchock scored over 100 points in the 14-game basketball season, and was the most outstanding lineman (a guard) for the football team. Saranchock is the original "quiet man." Giammona says his basketball teammates josh him about being the original Gary Cooper, with the Western hero a close second. Even the administration will be sorry to see Saronchock leave. A straight "A" student last semester, his absence would bring the whole student body average down. He seems to do everything well. If he does move, he'll probably be the best box packer ever seen here.

AT LONG LAST — HARMONY: Jefferson High School coaches root for their boys from the word go. In the past, there has been some disagreement with the Peninsula Sportswriters Association's picks of All-Leaguers. However, Mike Orlich, basketball coach, can't be discouraged this time. Asked before the choices were made, he picked what turned out to be the exact first five named by the writers. Ah! With all this peace and contentment on the Daly City sportscene, it's like going to Indian heaven.

WATCH OUT VENT, BOB IS COMING THROUGH: Daly City's donation to the top pro golfers, Ken Venturi, may one day have to step aside. Young Bob Snyder, of Westmoor High, has shown the form which might prove pro class. Snyder, a junior, was a runner-up in the Northern California Juniors matches and he won a trip to New York. He also qualified for the city championship in San Francisco. He carded a sterling 73, yet lost out to Paul Walters. Walters, incidentally, works at the Westlake Bowl.

YES, BUT NO: Jeff baseball Coach Steve Mezzera was asked if he would like to play in the South City horsehide tourney. Mezzera said he answered "yes" via phone. That's the last he's heard. The Indians aren't entered for the first time in many moons. "Kemo Savvy" Mezzera does not savvy. He must feel like the lone baseball ranger.

GG DOESN'T MEAN GOLDEN GATE FIELDS: Much running is done at Golden Gate fields but if the Golden Glove tourney held here was any indication of the type show put on by the joint efforts of OLPH-PAL, there won't be any running on March 24. Ten bouts of amateur boxing are slated that night. Amateurs are highly ambitious and the fan doesn't get "a clash in styles" as Eddie Machen reportedly said of his track matches with Zora Folley.

RAM LINKSMEN BEAT CO-CHAMPS

Tony Giammona's Westmoor golfers made an auspicious 1960 debut, beating the team they tied for the championship last year, San Mateo, 12½-8½, at the Peninsula Country Club in San Mateo last week.

Giammona took over this year for Coach Dick Cottrell, who led the team to the co-championship last year. Winners of matches were: Bob Snyder (W) over Dave Johnston, 2-1; Mike Seelig (W) over Hal Rajakovich, 2½-1½; Roger Pearson over Jim Roman (W), 3-0; Sam Alta (W) over Stu Herst, 2½-1½; and Marty Seelig (W) over Bill Progan, 3-0.

RAMS, INDIANS OPEN BASEBALL WARS APRIL 1

Westmoor and Jefferson, cross-town rivals, open the 14 game Peninsula League schedule against each other. Both coaches, Rod Losberger and Steve Mezzera, expect a closely contested race. A senior all-star game will be played on June 4 at San Mateo's Fitzgerald field after the season ends. League Schedules follow:

WESTMOOR

Indian Nine Lose Opener To Balboa

Jeff High cracked 12 basehits in their opening performance last week but lost to Balboa, 16-5, at the local diamond.

Tony Montalbo had 3 for 4, Georgie Claus 2 for 5 and Rod Stoller 2 for 4 to lead the losers' hitting attack. Despite the fine hitting, Coach Steve Mezzera was handicapped due to a number of his possible first-stringers being absent. Three boys were turning in their basketball uniforms and hadn't shown up for practice as of the first game.

Don Staff was banked about for 12 earned runs during his three-inning stint. John Souza finished the final four innings, allowing the Bucs only three runs. The Pirates had 15 hits, leaving but four men stranded. The Indians left 11 on base. Both teams made four errors.

Jefferson correspondent Noel Windom said Mike Kennedy, shortstop, and Stan Montalbo, left field, were outstanding with the glove. Balboa's J. Firstbrook drove in 9 of the 16 runs, four off his grand slam clout.

THE WRESTLING season is long over with but we're not sure Westmoor Coach Bob Blevins is still trying to untangle this mess. The pretzel-like setting was made by five Ram wrestlers during a practice session.

BASEBALL LEAGUE TO BE CLOSE

RAMS' COACH HAS SIX HURLERS READY

Ram baseball Coach Rod Losberger looks for a closely contested Peninsula League baseball race, with the exception of possibly Burlingame.

"Most teams have a bevy of veterans and will be well versed in playing time but lack the pitching strength to go with other returning fielders," Losberger said.

In this department, he is lucky. He has six hurlers to choose from for starting horsehide battles. He ranks them, at this early writing, as Bob Goodwin, Barry Krohn, Dick Reese, Terry Christman, Don Katona and Cornell Holmes. Though he actually doesn't rank Reese as a possible starter, Losberger is outspoken in his plaudits.

"In my estimation there isn't a better relief pitcher in the league than Dick," he judged. Reese compiled a 3-2 mark last year. Krohn is an All-PL right-fielder of last year and his 15 runs batted in account for his worth. He hit .254.

Other All-League returnees are second baseman Jim Heick (.375), and catcher Tom McHugh (.306), who will be moved to the outfield due to leg injuries. McHugh had an even better year in 1958, whacking a potent .355.

To make the Westmoorites a harder core in batting, first baseman Bill Dougherty will have to raise his .178 average as well as infielder Billy Hix, a .194, outfielder Bill Reynolds, a .037, and catcher Ed Walthard, a .192.

Dan O'Connor, a solid .281 sticker, will have to continue at that pace. Newcomers who could help are Dennis Coupe, John Kelly, Dave Peterson, Bob Rinaldo, Jerry Tissier, Ron Townsend, Daryl Woodside, Jerry Shirinian, Doug Eastman, Joe Fuentes and Rich Morales. Losberger is especially high on shortstopper Morales.

"We have a 'good' problem. At present there are too many good ballplayers for too few positions. As of now, there is only one position that is absolutely cinched. The rest of the jobs are up for grabs. It should help as everybody will be hustling to win and keep berths," he added.

Losberger has enough returnees, 10, to start a whole ball club. He handed this reporter a list that looked like a barber shop pole, striped in red, white and blue. The red underlined 11 first string possibles while the blue noted 6 possible first line pitchers.

Now all he hopes is that the boys bring back a pennant that he can use his multi-colored paints on.

Roger Miller will coach the Frosh-Soph nine. His team plays the same schedule as Losberger's excepting the home and away schedule is reversed.

Bob Laube Sets New High At Westlake Bowl With 288 Game

Bob Laube gave the railbirds a look at some championship bowling on Swanson's Westlake lanes as he opened up with a 288 game. Bob, a member of the Pinelake Market team in the 825 circuit, started his big one wih a spare and then threw ten strikes in a row. On the twelve ball he crossed over the head pin to register an eight count.

This surpasses the high single game for the Westlake Bowl by eight pins. Primo Liberatore's 280 was the top score.

Putting games of 190-223-223 together for 636, Len Petersen finished in a blaze of glory as the Westlake Knolls loop ended its winter season of play. In the Weekend Mixed Trio's, Bob Caldwell had 208-208-200 for 616.

The members of the fair sex also had their innings. Elinor Sheuerman for the Alley Cats in the TGIF loop led with 200-214-573. Pat Bertsch in the Evening Stars league had a 236-564. For the California Cabinets it was Betty Cooper's 202-539. Thelma Bacigalupi for the Vic Cristoni Flying "A" came through with a 210-527 in the Women's Classic.

With close to $300 in the Jack Pot Doubles fund, play is expected to pick up over the weekend that could swell this considerably. The entries are well ahead of the last tourney when over $2100 was distributed to 17 two man teams.

A few changes in the rules were made and information may be obtained by calling the Westlake Bowl — PL 6-5777.

The price remains the same. $3 per person, which takes care of the bowling and scorekeepers with the balance of the money returned to the prize fund.

Any duo that bowls 1385 or over, handicap included, breaks the bank. In which case whatever money is in the pool will be divided among the top 17 tandems. If the magic 1385 is not reached, the highest score will take down first place.

Bowlers must roll at least one series before March 13 to become eligible to bowl the final two weeks of play. The tournament closes April 3.

BROTHERS HIT, HURL JEFF PAST CARLMONT, 10-5

Stan Montalbo made his first varsity baseball start a successful one, while relying on brother Tony to knock the runs across the plate.

Stan limited Carlmont to six hits, walking six and striking out six, as Jefferson High's Indians won their first practice game, 10-5, last Wednesday at Jeff. He got off to a shaky start, allowing a home run to lead-off batter Lyle Johnson, but settled down to win.

Tony drove the winning run across the plate, blasting a fast ball out of sight with Rich Mortola and Mike Kennedy on base. Tony had one other run batted in while getting 2 for 4. Catcher El Crowley had two singles in three at bats while driving two runners across. Jeff had 9 hits in all.

3 Jeff Teams Lose Opening Meets To Links

"Considering it was our first time out and a few of the boys were out with illness, I'm pleased with the results of Friday's Lincoln meet, even though we lost all three decision," Jeff Track Coach Bob Watt said.

"Some of the boys showed improvement over the time trials that were held here the previous week," he added.

The varsity lost 73-40, B's, 66-38 and C's 61-60. Anibal Davila and Bob Alverio paced the Jeff mile runners. Davila registered a 4:46.5 while Alverio had a 4:49.0 timing. Two Joe's, Reynaga and Vaez, led the way in the 880. Reynaga recorded a 2:6 while Vaez was right behind at 2:8. Gary Monyhun's varsity discus throw of 136 feet, 6 inches was also outstanding.

B's leaders were John Fanucchi, 10 foot pole vault, and Ted Marquez's 1:31.9 first place in the 660. Jeff greeted Lowell Tuesday and will meet Polytechnic Friday at Kezar stadium.

Rams Win "Windy" Meet From Lowell

Westmoor's track team had a cold and windy afternoon of racing against Lowell High and were held back from making any outstanding times Friday, March 5.

The Rams captured the varsity meet, 64-49, and B's 58-42, while Lowell strode to a 53-28 C's win. Pat Russo gave a fine performance for the C's, tripling home first places in the 660, high jump and broad jump.

For the varsity, top ranking finishers were George Herbst, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Jim Sershen, 440; Tom Dake, low hurdles; Ron Klingler, mile; and Roger Johnson, broad jump. The meet was at Westmoor.

RAMS WIN SECOND

Heick Scores On Overthrow In Final Frame Here

All-Peninsula League second baseman Jim Heick scored on an overthrow in the last of the seventh Friday to give Westmoor High's varsity baseballers a 5-4 practice win over San Leandro here.

Dick Reese, who relieved Cornell Holmes with one out in the top of the seventh, was the winning Ram pitcher. Southpaw Barry Krohn started for Westmor, allowing two hits and striking out 4 in four innings. Holmes hurled 2⅓ frames. He yielded one hit, fanned 3 and walked the same number.

Heick's double, after Bill Dougherty's single, was followed by Danny O'Connor's single in Westmoor's tw-run rally in the fourth. O'Connor's blow brought in Dougherty, then Heick stole home.

In the sixth with the bags jammed and two outs, shortstop Rich Morales' single drove in Holmes and Krohn to tie the score 4-all.

Heick got the clinching rally going by walking in the seventh. O'Connor grounded out, but Heick steamed into third and then dashed home on the overthrow. San Leandro's third pitcher, Bob Smith, was charged with the defeat.

Westmoor, 2-0 in practice games, meets Galileo here Thursday and Serra in San Mateo on Friday. Bad weather threatened cancellation of a mid-week clash with Balboa of San Francisco.

WASHINGTON BLANKED, 3-0

Katona, Reese Shine As Rams Win Opener

Westmoor's varsity baseballers got off to an auspicious debut last Wednesday, blanking Washington, 3-0, behind the tight pitching of righthander Don Katona and lefty Dick Reese.

Katona flipped the first four innings, allowing one hit and one walk. He fired third strikes past 7 batters. Ram Coach Rod Losberger said he might have to re-align his starting assignment schedule. He had Katona figured as No. 5 pitcher, but if his pitching continues in this manner Don might move up in the rotation.

The sophomore was the winning chucker though senior Reese could do some bragging of his own. Figured to be the No. 1 reliefer, Reese also allowed but one hit and walked one. He also fanned one.

Catcher Ed Walthard drove in all the Ram runs. Bill Dougherty walked to lead off the second inning. He was moved to second as Jim Heick did likewise. A sacrifice by Bill Reynolds moved the runners along, and Walthard's sacrifice fly scored Dougherty.

In the sixth, Terry Christman doubled, Barry Krohn gained life on a fielder's choice, and Dougherty again walked to fill the bases. Heick saw three strikes go past him and Reese forced Christman at home plate. Walthard clutch singled through shortstop on a high bounder to drive the final two tallies across.

Losberger had high praise for his whole defensive unit, and shortstop Rich Morales in particular. The Rams had but one error. "The pitchers are way ahead of the batters at this early time but the bats will start to sizzle in the future," Losberger predicted.

The Rams host Galileo this Thursday and then travel to Serra Friday for another practice tilt.
